2009.05.24 Edition

My sheep shall hear My voice . . .

Foreword

The following is presented in the first person as though God Himself is speaking. It is done in the belief that that, precisely, is the case. However, seeing that a mortal, and let it be said very unworthy and mistake-prone vessel, has been used in this process, the reader is admonished to please not lift what is presented herein to the level of Scripture or even direct prophetic words coming from the mouth of God. Rather test the spirit whether it is of God and measure everything contained herein with Scripture, whether it harmonizes with God's given Word or not.

May this booklet be a blessing to God's children, and may it be for the building up of the body of Christ on earth.

(Note: It is NOT intended for non-believers)

Words

Love

If you wait on Me and are willing to receive whatever it is I give and speak,
I will also open your ears to hear My voice.

Always be fully assured of My love for you.

My love for you is not some side-issue to Me, neither do I accommodate you with some love I have left after I have given the rest to My other children. All of My children receive all of My love.

My love is without limit.

My love for you is very, very special, and absolutely central to not only My relationship with you, but also to My very being. Know this, and grow, live, flourish and bear fruit as you are rooted and grounded in this love of Mine for you.

I know the desire of your heart - to know Me better, to abide in Me, to live in close intimacy with Me, to meet Me face to face. I have undertaken to make that possible, and it shall be. Your part is to be as clay in My hands and to trust Me totally and without question.

Do not despise My words and My prophecies on your life because you distrust yourself.

Never limit Me, My child. Expect even greater things from Me than anything you have been told, have heard or even can think. I AM the Creator, I AM Almighty, I AM with you and for you! Fear nothing!
Be bold in the Holy Spirit.

Fear no man, and scorn their opinion in the face of My acceptance and approval.

I will yet rock the foundations of all human institutions called church and they shall be reduced to a pile of rubbish.
But My true church, My body, shall appear and become manifest and shine with My own glory and go forth in the power and anointing of the Holy Spirit and perform My work and perform great deeds of faith, signs and wonders in My name, even in your country, and even before the end comes. I will manifest Myself through My body for the world to see. My coming is near! But before that all these things shall come to pass.

11

Do not underestimate My desire to commune with you, My child. For this is the living water and the living bread that feeds you spiritually.

12

Have no doubt that I will answer all your questions, and meet all your requests, and fill all your needs.

13

Spend time with Me and with My word, that you may learn to know Me.

14

Abandon yourself to Me.

15

Leave your problems in My hands, trusting Me, and see then how I deal with them.

16

Any thoughts of Me ever rejecting you are from the adversary, from Satan and his demons.

17

Do not look down on this method of writing down what you hear from Me. It is a gift from Me. And in this way Satan cannot steal what I have given you so very easily as is the case when you don't write it down.

18

Do not listen to those who are not willing to relinquish Babylon, but yet try to enter Jerusalem.

19

Do not doubt My attitude of goodwill and favour towards you. Neither ever doubt My intimate involvement in your life and circumstances. I AM present with you - every moment, everywhere, always - regardless of what you may do or think or deserve.

20

Your own opinions on what I am supposed to work in you, and when, closes you to My further working. Be silent before Me, then, not only in words, but especially in opinions.

21

As the flower needs time to develop and to open up before the full glory of the sun will shine on its openness and display its beauty, even so it will take a while for you to develop and to open up like a flower. And then you will see and receive My glory and the joy of My presence, always being with you.

22

Do not rush things.

23

I am protecting you and cuddling you in ways beyond your knowledge.

24

Your development is in My hands. I AM the Creator.

25

Rest then in the sure knowledge that I accept you and that I am creating you into an object of beauty in My sight.

26

I will show you what it is that I want from you. You need not worry in advance. Just abide in Me, the living Vine and the living Word, and your fruit and your words shall be established.

27

Your concern for . . . . . is also My concern. I am the Almighty, your Creator, and that of . . . . . I am your God and that of . . . . . Rest your hand in Mine and let Me take over, My child.

28

Fear not, My child. Rest assured in the knowledge of not only My love for you, but also My power and wisdom.

29

For this is My desire and My design, My child, to find and to have a people who willingly obey and love Me, and who is willing to trust Me in all and in any circumstances.

30

Your times are in My hand. Be prepared to wait for My leading regardless of what you may be thinking to do in accordance with your own wisdom.

31

Never neglect to spend time with Me for I long to spend time with you.

32

I have your ways in My hand and your destiny is wrapped up in My heart.

33

You shall be victorious because I have been victorious.

34

Press in toward Me, My child, and run the race, for this is the goal to be reached: full, complete, unblemished and eternal fellowship with Me. And for and toward this purpose I will lead you on and guide your every step.

35

Trust Me in a way that do not require to understand all My ways.

36

Trust Me and know that I have your interest at heart and AM acting on your behalf.

37

I will never require anything from you that you cannot do or do not know how to do. For with the appointment will also come the anointing of My Spirit, equipping you in abundance for the task you have been given.

38

Do not, My child, take up responsibilities just because they are there, unless I have given them to you.

39

The enemy wants to entangle you in many bondages and frustrations, thereby reducing you to incompetence and a pattern of failure, breaking down your faith even in Me and causing you to become an unusable vessel to Me. Disallow him this opportunity, My son, and restrict yourself to those tasks I give to you. You shall know them and recognize them, for you shall be able to do them with a total commitment, with My anointing and appointing, whether they be small or great.

40

Rest in My provision - in the sure knowledge of My supply and provision being complete, and lacking nothing.

41

Wait for Me, My child, to show the way before you try to run on it.

42

Do not attempt to train yourself in things you know nothing about. Shall the blind teach the blind to see?

43

Stop trying to help yourself to what you think you need; stop trying to mend yourself in what you think needs mending, and leave all that to Me. I have undertaken to make you perfect. Do not interfere in My work, but trust Me, wait for Me, press in to Me, worship Me, love Me, minister to Me - that, My child, is the way to be like clay in My hands.

44

Do then that which I have laid on you to do, and afterwards only the next step will be made known.

45

Hope in what lies ahead and in the glory awaiting you if you continue in the way.

46

Know then also that Satan will attack our relationship in many sly ways, attempting to draw your eyes away from Me, causing you to think that I have forsaken you. I will never forsake you, My child! I am with you, and I am for you. I love you!

47

Do not stop, My child, you have not arrived yet. Run, and press on towards the high prize awaiting you. And yield then everything to Me; and I shall perfect that which concerns you.

48

Press into Me, my child, without hesitation, without fear, without doubt, without apprehension. I will never cast you out. You are Mine.

49

You are the work of My hands. Therefore be bold in Me and do not trust in yourself or even look to yourself in terms of your own worth and what you can do apart from Me.

50

Be prepared to lose everything this world can offer or has given, and know that none of what I give you will be lost into all eternity.

51

Let Me fill your horizon and I will work out My life in you.

52

Know and realize this one thing, My child, that I have chosen you and that I love you.

53

You are not to look anywhere else in time of need; you are not to dedicate yourself to anyone or anything else, nor to any organization, for you are part of My body, the church, and belong to Me exclusively.

54

You are not to spend your time with things which are not from Me, for you are not your own.

55

Being Mine you must know and take to heart that I am caring for you to the smallest detail, and that you are safe in My hands. You shall lack nothing, you shall need nothing, for I will provide in abundance. Only dedicate yourself, your time and your love to Me and to Me only, and thus I will bless you and keep you.

56

As the eagle trusts the wind to keep it aloft, even though it does not see it, even so My child, you must trust Me, step out over the abyss and spread your wings. And that which you cannot see or understand will cause you to soar to the greatest heights. My love and My peace will carry you and guide you, but it can never do so unless you step out and spread your wings.

57

It is Me working in you and you responding to My thoughts and wishes. In this union we shall grow together and you shall be the tree planted by the riverside - the tree that bears fruit in due season, the tree strong and sturdy, which no wind or storm or flood will be able to uproot, because your roots are attached to Me.

58

This is the one thing I desire from you My child: to be rooted and built up in Me, to enter into complete unity with Me and to fully know My love and provision for you - to lose yourself in Me; to deny yourself utterly in sheer abandonment of yourself, your likes and dislikes, your opinions and answers, your desires and wishes - all of those abandoned in favour of Me and Mine; and for you to seek Me and Me only in their stead. I love you.

59

I am not involved in any attempt by you or by any man to seek gain for himself.
I shall never be an instrument in man's hand to further himself or his own purposes.
I am holy.

60

You have to let go all your stays and all your bonds of preconceived ideas and misgivings based on distrust. Have faith in Me and in My total control over your life, your circumstances, your appointments, your time, your actions and your . . . . .

61

I want you to have total and perfect peace, knowing that I care for you and that I am able to deal with any circumstance in your life - that you need not care about anything, but may dedicate your whole being into seeking Me and enjoying My presence.

62

For this is My desire and My design, My child, to find and to have a people who willingly obey and love Me, and who is willing to trust Me in all and in any circumstances.

63

Be faithful even in the least, and I will establish you in the most. Be available in all your own weakness, and I will use you in My strength. Be honest and true in all your darkness, and I will guide you with My light, My wisdom, My glory. Be there when I send you, when I beckon you, when I recall you - be there and be obedient to My guidance, and you shall be part in My victory - My final victory, even.

64

Losing yourself into Me means that you accept My all-sufficiency in all things; forsaking your own efforts to understand or to question the possibility of failure or irresponsibility; forsaking all the various preconditions of what is required before you may come to Me, and of what is supposed to happen after you have come to Me.

65

Your faithfulness and your continued faithfulness is what I need, what I require from you.

66

Be available, and remain available and willing, My child, and My peace and the blessing of My known presence shall fill you, guide you, and overwhelm you with joy.

67

Flow with Me in confidence and freedom, My child, not in bondage and fear, imposing your own preconceived restrictions born out of sin, born out of doubt, born out of your natural desires to understand and somehow control. Let go, understanding nothing more than My love and My leading, and flow with My spirit however and wherever He may lead.

68

Know that great things lie ahead, therefore press on with perseverance and I will assure the victory for you over every obstacle and in every test. You will discover that I am your victory in every case. Be prepared to suffer loss and pain, and to truly relinquish all that is yours, and then My grace will abound over you and I will fill you to overflowing with what is Mine.

69

Rejoice, My child, in all things and in all circumstances, for you are never alone and never without My love and earnest, tender care.

70

My vision and plan for you is infinitely greater and higher than anything this world can offer.

71

Be slow in speaking, be careful in answering, be diligent in listening to what they say and to what I say. And then you shall know what and how to answer.

72

Be diligent to spend time with Me and My word that you may be fed and grow strong in Me and My word.

73

Ignore the thoughts of unworthiness and anxiety and fear that tend to creep into your being, for they are from Satan and not from Me.

74

Satan will try to discourage you and his grandest design is to focus your eyes on your own lack of ability. Be not misled, for it is I who am the victory complete. Look to Me and Satan will be defeated.

75

Be willing to walk My way, whatever that may require of you. Be willing to respond to whatever I may ask from you and you shall learn My way and you shall know Me, not only in My sovereign power, but also in My love and understanding of all your weaknesses and fears and uncertainties.

76

I will never reject you, My child, on the basis of your mistakes; but without total obedience to Me, I can never bring you to the point of victory, or even to the point of true blessings.

77

Be childlike and simple in your faith and trust in Me. Simply do what I ask and leave all consequences in My hands, and it shall be to you life and freedom and victory in My Name.

78

Be like clay in My hands, but also be like the eagle that steps into flight and spreads his wings to the air. Remember that My Spirit carries you and supports you, but only once you spread your wings and step into the open.

79

My child, what shall you do without the knowledge of My love for you? Indeed, you shall become hard and cold and selfrighteous.

What shall you do without My presence in your life? Indeed, you shall die.

And what shall you do without My grace toward you? Indeed, you shall be lost, without any hope whatsoever.

80

I appreciate your love and honesty and willingness to be and to do what I want. For apart from your willingness I cannot, because I will not, do My work in your life.

81

Remember that all your ways are directed and controlled by Me. Therefore know that nothing happens to you by chance. Subject yourself to My work, then, and be at peace.

82

You need not understand and plan all things by yourself. You just need to abandon your own control and to revel in My work and My love for you.

83

Remember that My love is not to be earned, for it cannot be earned, but it is to be welcomed and embraced with joy and thanksgiving - with no boasting and no self-directed bloating and conceit.

84

Let not your heart be troubled over many things - things that are totally outside your sphere of control or authority, things beyond your knowledge and understanding. Satan saddles you with many loads, none of which you need to accept. Rather be careful to not accept anything that you are not sure of whether it is from Me.

85

I am able to keep you from stumbling. I know your limitations and I am not dissatisfied with them. No flower can fly like a bird, because I never made it to fly. Likewise, you have not been meant to be capable to do all things.

86

Your abilities and capabilities are from Me, and nothing that you can ever offer Me will enrich Me in the least. But My desire is for you, that you should be what and where you were purposed to be - what I purposed you to be and where I intended you to be - in My presence, one with Me.

87

Do then, what I give you to do. And if you trust Me, you shall know when it is truly from Me, for it shall be hallmarked by peace and joy and love, and you shall be able to do it. But Satan will continuously attempt to saddle you with impossible and unfair burdens. Remember, My child, that I told you before: 'My burden is light and My yoke is easy'. I would not have told you that unless it was true.

Therefore, by this you may distinguish what is from Satan: he will cause the flower to try to fly and to feel guilty when it does not, and he will cause the bird to try to bloom and to feel guilty when it cannot. And his works are hallmarked by fear, anxiety and guilt.

To trust Me can never be separated from waiting on Me and trusting Me though nothing seems to be happening.

89

My purposes with you are good and only good.

90

You need not give Me anything but yourself.

91

Press in to Me, My child, press in to Me. Do not be deterred by anything. Neither expect instant results, neither be discouraged by your feelings or lack of feelings.

92

A tree is built up by being rooted deeply in the soil, drinking in the rays of My sunlight and being watered by the rain from heaven. This the tree receives with no payment or performance on its part. What it has to do, is to send out its roots into the soil and receive My love, to open up its leaves and drink in My sunlight, to accept with gladness the rain of My grace and be fed by Me. Likewise, My word is available to many of My children, but most of them do not drink it in and are therefore not fed by it. My love I give and reach out with it to all of My children, but most of them do not receive it, trying to deserve it instead; and My Spirit woos all of My children, but most of them do not open up their lives to receive My light and My leading - instead they turn their faces away from Me. I find no delight in this, My child, for I want them to grow and to bear fruit. But in this way they are about to die.

93

Remember, the fruit is from Me - you simply have to bear it.

94

My child, know the truth, for it shall set you free: I love you, in truth and in sincerity. You need not perform in any way whatsoever to deserve My love. I have given it already and will not take it away. You need not know why I love you, but simply that I love you. You need not be anxious, thinking whether I will keep on loving you - for My love, like Me, is eternal.

95

As you wait on Me, you shall also know Me. You shall know My voice and My presence; My love and My interest in your affairs, in your life, in your well-being, but especially in your perfection. Be then ready and willing to be sanctified to the utmost of perfection, for such is My desire and plan with you. It shall not come without pain, My child, but also not without blessing.

96

Be willing to remain quiet before Me and before men, until you receive My word for that particular situation.

97

Do not doubt My willingness and ability to completely arrange your life in order to bring it into perfect conformance with My will and My purpose. This I shall do as long as you obey Me and are willing to sacrifice yourself and your own interests in favour of Mine.

98

I shall provide for all you need. Trust Me also in the seemingly wasteful and senseless occurrences in your life, realizing that I AM your Provider.

99

The voice of the accuser is known to you, for it lacks consistency and gentleness; it causes conflict and not peace; it finds no response of joy in your heart. Even though what I may ask of you may be difficult to obey, yet you shall know that it is from Me when you find peace in your heart and joy on your lips.

100

Always remember, My child, that I am never in a hurry.
Time is My creation and I am in complete control of it.

101

Every step along the way is My will and My working, but your choice and your response. Therefore, I would say again:
Press in to Me, for I am your refuge and the Rock of your defense.

102

My dear child, in Me you may find peace - a peace that transcends all your own thoughts and misconceptions; all your fears and anxieties; all your distrust and despair; all your tentativeness and lack of boldness; all your feelings of insecurity and apprehension; all your misappropriated beliefs in your own insufficiency and lack of worth; all your own frustrated desires and efforts in becoming something you think you ought to be; all your doubts about the future and your fears of missing your goal; all your dependency on your own knowledge and understanding, and all your unbelief and fear of failure. I, even I, transcend all of your deficiencies and all of your circumstances and I rule over them all in sovereign power and authority. Learn then to trust Me, My child, and let your peace be Me, in all simplicity of mind and understanding. I AM your peace! Trust Me for that!

103

My child, what shall a father do when his son is in need? What shall a mother do when her child cries out to her? Then why do you doubt My response to your cry for help? I love you with a love that far exceeds that of any earthly father or mother. I know your need and I have heard your cry for help. If I do not immediately respond in accordance with your thoughts of how I should or should not, it does not imply that I have bad in mind or in store. Your anxiousness is a reflection on My ability and willingness to care for you and to meet all your need.

104

It is true that you do not and cannot and need not, indeed should not, understand My ways, for they are much higher than yours. But the one thing that I require of you is to trust Me even though you do not understand.

105

By all means, call the elders to pray for ....., for thus I have indicated for you to do in My word, but know also that I am not bound to recipes which switches Me on or off. I am the Sovereign LORD who acts according to My own way and time. What I want from you is to trust Me, even though you don't understand My ways.

106

Stand firm in the knowledge of My Fatherhood and your childhood - being My child, a child of My love. Stand firm in the knowledge of My loving care and of My grace towards you. Know that I am the One who have accepted the responsibility and have set Myself the task to perfect you in holiness and to transform you into the image of My Son, Jesus.

107

Know that as time goes by, so do My dealings with you change and My relationship with you pass from one phase to the next, growing all the time in stature and intimacy, until finally, you reach the stage of perfection. Be satisfied and therefore willing, in the stage that you are in, My child, knowing that that is a necessary step, a necessary stage on My road for you. Whilst yet longing for the goal, set all your mind and heart to running the race as best you can right there where I have put you, right there where you are now, in that stage. And then all envy and all comparing with others shall disappear, for your path is unique and not to be compared with that of others.

108

Remember, My child, that you have and are nothing that you did not also first receive from Me.

109

Expect My guidance and wait for it at all times and in all cases. Expect Me to always be willing and able to be your Shepherd, and surely, you shall not be lead astray, but shall find rest beside still waters and shall not lack anything you need.

110

Watch out, take care, for Satan is out to get you; to trap you in a quagmire of despondency and fearfulness, to destroy your trust in Me and to stir you up to rebellion. But know this one thing, My child, I AM still your God; I AM still for you; all that I have told you thus far still holds true; I AM ever the same - yesterday, today and forever. Satan has lost and therefore he shall lose. But you, My child, need to look up and see Me, seated in victory and majesty far above Satan and his world. And you must come to the full realization that you and I are one and that you are in fact seated with Me in victory and majesty, far above Satan, and way and beyond his reach. You must know and must trust and rely on this: that I love you and will not abandon you to Satan.

111

Even though, for a time, you are to be proved by Satan's schemes and attacks, you are not alone, and your place of victory in Me is assured. Walk then by faith, My child, and not by sight, until the fullness of things comes and you shall truly see Me face to face. But until then, persevere, knowing that whatever happens I AM always with you; your victory in Me is complete; and nothing will separate you from My love. Therefore trust Me and be thankful in all circumstances - especially those you do not understand. I love you.

112

Watch out, My child, for you know not when the time is for Me to come and fetch you to be with Me. Be ready, be prepared for My coming at any moment.

113

Always expect Me to act, but also be willing to thankfully accept it when it seems to you that I do not act.

114

Keep expecting Me to act on your behalf once you have reached the point of giving your problem to Me; and to answer you once you have asked the question to Me. Though I do not normally act or answer at once, if you are willing to wait and to wait expectantly, you shall see that I always act and always answer. Be then bold in delivering all your problems and all your questions to Me and take My yoke upon you. Serve Me in love, gentleness and humility - waiting for Me to act, trusting Me.

115

My child, be at peace in My presence, knowing that I care and that I will provide all you will ever need. Never will I leave you or forsake you, for you are as the apple of My eye - always in the centre of My sight. I know all you do or think. I see you always before Me.

116

In humbleness, be a servant to all, even as I came to earth to be a servant to all; yet always knowing that you are a prince of God, having become that by divine selection, by divine grace and not through anything that you have done.

117

You must realize who you are, and that you are precious in My sight; knowing that you have been chosen for great and wonderful things, being a son of the Almighty King, being predestined to obtain the inheritance due to His saints, being set free from the world, from Satan, from sin - to serve the Living God and to be a servant to all men, even as I also served and gave My life to all men.

118

I have indeed chosen you as My own, born of My Spirit, constituted righteous, adopted as My very own son, member of My family. And all of these did not depend one bit on your performance, will, effort or background. And it shall also not fall on any of these.

119

As you learn to rest in Me and in My provision for you, Satan shall lose his power over you.

120

Be at peace in the sure knowledge that whatever was ever necessary for your life, victory and sanctification, I have already done. There is nothing you can add, or need to add. And every effort of yours in this regard will meet with defeat and condemnation, with detrimental growth for you and with victory for Satan. Do not allow him that, My child, do not grant him these opportunities of gleeful enjoyment. Treat him as the vanquished enemy by hiding yourself in My victory.

121

You have given Me your life, My child. Therefore, abandon all your own efforts and trust Me. I will not let you do wrong, I will not let you fall, I will not cause you to not do where you ought to have done, because I see perfectly and know perfectly.

122

I have accepted you into My body. You are not an autonomous part, but a subjective part. Simply be; and be fed by the perfect working of the body, to grow thereby. And all the rest shall follow within the complete working of the body the way I Myself see fit. Subject yourself then to My authority and to My will and to My life and become a member and not a separate, self-willed, performing, competing, envious life. Be truly willing to die - to be nothing, and to do nothing - to die. And then only can My life come forth and take over. I love you. I accept you - let Me nurture you and you shall live indeed.

123

As you learn to abandon yourself and stop striving, as one who has died, you shall be made alive through My life in you and shall walk in complete victory over Satan - reigning in life over the world and all that is from the world: sin, death, grief, pain, discomfort, disillusionment, sorrow, selfishness, disappointments, restlessness and futility.

124

My life is the life you are longing for that it shall burst forth. Die then to all your own efforts - even your own efforts to let My life burst forth. Remember, My life is not in your hands to cause it to flow, but your life is in My hands to cause it to cease. Be willing then, to let go of all those efforts of yours, and be fully and completely willing to let Me live My life in you exactly as I choose to. Leave the when, the where, the how, the if and the if not, the why and the wherefore to Me. Remember, it is My life in you, I will live it, not you. And I shall not be subject to your whims and criticism. What I want is your faith, your trust, your love, your joy and your thanksgiving; your complete satisfaction with whatever I do in you. As long as your own opinions, ideas, motives, preconceived judgments, and the like are present, I cannot act; I cannot live in you and through you with you judging and criticizing My doing - and that I will not allow. Die therefore to all those things, and simply marvel at My doing. Give all your expectations also to Me. Let Me not become the instrument to fulfill your expectations, but let yourself become the instrument to fulfill My expectations by being unreservedly available to Me so that I will be not only the true source of any expectation you may experience (or know), but also the source of the fulfillment thereof. I want to do this in your life, My child.

125

Let Me be your life by allowing Me to live in your stead. And let your life become that of being a spectator in the passenger seat, trusting Me to be in complete control, and also to be the very life in you. And you shall stand amazed at the results. But those results shall be Mine, so that people will see Me, in accordance with your prayers, and that people will come to Me and not to you. But you shall be the vehicle and I will honour you for that when My glory is revealed.

Stand fast in this knowledge, My child, that you may not become discouraged. But let go of your own life and allow Me to live. I love you dearly.

I want you to have total and perfect peace, knowing that I care for you and that I am able to deal with any circumstance in your life, that you need not care about anything, but may dedicate your whole being into seeking Me and enjoying My presence. There is nothing too difficult for Me; there is nothing that is excluded in My promise of total care and provision for those who love Me. Rejoice in this knowledge, My child! You are Mine and I care for you - you shall lack nothing, for I AM your Father, the Almighty.

127

Every day and every night, every moment of your life, I am there to protect and to keep you in all your ways. Just as the sparrow, though seemingly insignificant, is in My eye and even under My protection the way I choose to, so also - and much more so - are you in My eye and do I keep you and protect you the way I choose to.

128

You are living in an imperfect world, My child, and in an imperfect state. Because sin entered the world, so also did corruption, futility, pain and death. And none of My children on earth are freed from these in the body and in their being and their circumstances. But then, also, I have decreed that the way My children bear up under these adverse circumstances, shall determine their special reward from Me. Know then assuredly, that even adverse circumstances I allow in your life, is not from lack of love, but is, on the contrary, based on My righteousness and expresses My love. In the finite terms of your mind this is incomprehensible, My child. Do not imagine it to be differently. But in the spirit it is known to bear an eternal fruit of glory. Therefore never despair under any circumstances that I may allow in your life.

129

My child, My son, My precious one - let these words sink into your being that they may become real to you; that your relationship with Me may be rid of all straining and self-effort to be or to remain acceptable. You have become accepted and precious in My eyes through the death of My Son, and nothing can change that. Only when you should try to do by yourself that which only My Son Jesus could have done and has also done, only then can you drift away. But as long as you simply rest and trust in My fulfilled provision for you, nothing can take away your position of acceptance and son-ship to Me. You know that this is the very thing Satan attacks continually - condemning you and accusing you in order to bring you again and again to the point of self-effort and distrust in My continuing acceptance.

130

My child, My precious one, I have called you unto Myself to be with Me unto all eternity, and nothing shall separate you from Me and from My love for you. There is no question of yours that I shall ever leave unanswered. There is no need of yours that I shall ever leave unattended, for you have indeed become My very own, and you are dear to Me. Wait then always on Me, for My answer will be clear and will be on time, and My provision for your need will be abundant.

131

Seek My love and My acceptance in the face even of total antagonism and rejection of men who have become futile in their thoughts and blinded by Satan. For you cannot truly serve Me before every vestige of seeking after human approval disappears from your being, before you are utterly cleansed from seeking human recognition and acclaim. Expect nothing from that quarter - neither acclaim, nor rejection. And whether you then experience either acclaim or rejection, think nothing of it and count it as rubbish - for whether you accept either the one, or the other, both are traps of Satan. Always and in all things, seek My face and My will only. And My approval and My love shall leave you never. Hold fast to this word, My child. Write it on your heart, remember it, meditate on it, bind it on your mind and on your hand as a continuous reminder to direct your thoughts and your actions in My way for you. And I shall fill you with love for those same people whose opinions, whether good or bad, you reject. I will oftentimes speak to you through them, even. So listen to what they say; listen and never reject their words, but always reject their opinions - always.

132

My child, where are all those hours that have been spent in uselessness? And where are all those deeds bearing fruits of iniquity, sin and darkness? And where are all those thoughts born out of selfish desires and hatching self-pity and tears, not only on the part of the originator, but also on the part of the recipient? And where are all the works of darkness of the flesh? - My Son took them all and took them down into the deepest depths of the Pit and left them there! He has done it, and He did it completely and perfectly, and He will never do it again. He did it for all eternity! And you then, My child, whenever you are attacked and condemned and accused by Satan concerning any of those, then point him to the completed work of Jesus, and he will flee from you in haste and defeat.

133

Perseverance means to remain enveloped in the completed work of Jesus, and not to drift away in selfishness or pride or self-effort, but to die to all those and to remain in My Son and in His completed work of atonement.

134

The work that Jesus did has been done for all who are willing and obedient to accept it and to abide by it, and Satan's grand design is to camouflage this fact and to present his own version of self-effort and future restoration in its stead. And this will always lead to condemnation and insecurity. Your salvation, My child, has already been secured in My Son Jesus, and that work is perfect and complete and has been done, never to be done again.

135

Learn to flow in complete obedience and simplicity of mind and thinking in My Spirit, in My leading and provision in all situations of life.

136

For this is My desire and My design, My child, to find and to have a people who willingly obey and love Me, and who is willing to trust Me in all and in any circumstances.

137

The darkness and the limitations surrounding your situation are there to direct your faith, your trust to Me. Thus you will not be allowed to understand all My actions and to understand your circumstances, for this knowledge will deter you from trusting Me. I will that you be totally dependant on Me, for your own good. I will that you be lovingly coached into seeking Me at every opportunity; that you press in to Me and love Me; that all these things that you cannot handle by yourself will have you rushing into My arms. For My purposes are not selfish and rude, as the mother hen is not selfish or rude when it clucks to gather her chicks under her wings. I want you to live close to Me, My child, in close dependence and in joyful fellowship. Therefore be thankful even for the darkness and the limitations and tribulations of your being and let all of these teach you to always run to Me, for I am waiting and am eager to always, and in all circumstances, be your Redeemer and your Victory and your Life and your Light and your All. Know Me, trust Me, seek Me and LIVE! There is a life in abundance awaiting you, My child!

138

Another day and another hour is awaiting all of you; that you be led forward into bright and glorious light; that the night and its darkness be gone and past forever; that the iniquity and weakness of your present existence be forever eradicated and replaced by the brightness and glory of full sonship in My kingdom. Let then your anticipation of the approaching day guide your actions and cause you to rejoice. For nothing Satan and his hosts do can stop this day dawning and this hour coming - the hour of his defeat, already attained on Calvary. Rejoice and be glad, My children, rejoice for your release is at hand and victory is nigh.

139

Be faithful, My child, even in the least and I will establish you in the most. Be available in all your own weakness and I will use you in My strength. Be honest and true in all your darkness and I will guide you with My light, My wisdom, My glory. Be there when I send you, when I beckon you, when I recall you - be there and be obedient to My guidance and you shall be part in My victory, My final victory even.

140

My glory is to be revealed to a dying world before the end comes and the time of salvation be past.

141

Do not cling to the known and stable ways where you still have a feeling of control and stability. Remember that I AM the Rock; I AM the safe refuge in the storm; I AM He Who will cause you to walk in victory on the waves of the storm; I AM your habitation and your refuge in times of trouble and in times of instability. I want even to be your only Refuge and your only Habitation, not only in perilous times, but always.

142

Rest assured, My child, in the knowledge of your childhood and of My Fatherhood. For I AM the ever present Father who cares for His children with a love that you need not comprehend, but that you need to accept and trust in, and that you shall experience more and more.

143

Be simply available to My beckoning and sending and do not tire yourself with deciding and pre-judging events as if you are in control of them.

144

I want you to be a part of My work on earth. I have determined, ever since I made man, to rule and to reign, to work, not apart from, but through man. And for that reason I am looking for clean and worthy vessels through whom I can accomplish My work and My will. These need to be vessels that have been cleansed of their own desire for glory, of their own wills, of their own agendas in order to be totally willing and obedient to whatever I command. These have to be vessels cleansed of themselves, to be filled with Me; to be directed by My voice, to be channels of My power and of My love. You also then, My child, be such a vessel, for that is what I have called you to and have destined you to be.

145

As you relax with thankful rejoicing in My plan and My destiny, in My way with you, without blaming yourself for not being different to what you are, you shall experience the reality of My blessings and the fullness of becoming what I have destined you to be: a vessel to My glory, not yours; according to My choosing, not yours; filled with My love and My life, not yours; given My righteousness and worth, not yours; to be unto Me what I desire and you shall also desire according to My working in you. Rest in your destiny, My child, trusting Me completely. And be content in My way for you.

146

Stop blaming yourself for things of My choosing. I love you. Trust Me with rejoicing and contentment.

147

Be then willing and prepared, My child, to be the smallest in My kingdom and then I will use you in a mighty way. As you truly forsake all your own glory and choose Mine instead, and as you relinquish all desire to be better than the least of My saints, then will I be able to establish you in a place of glory, because only then will that glory not corrupt you and make you the prey, the partaker, of Satan's own pride and fall.

148

Persevere in humility and service; persevere in My command to study the Word and wait; persevere in prayer and worship; persevere in My will, with complete abeyance of your own; persevere in unity and submission to your brethren - uplifting them in all things, and never seeking your own; persevere in singleness of mind to pursue the Kingdom of God above all else, and I shall lead you on and be your guiding light. Yes, I shall anoint you with My own perseverance and love and humility. Behold, you do not have long to wait any more, but consider every moment and every happening as an opportunity to persevere and grow in these things I have told you; see them as precious and glorious, and they shall indeed be precious and glorious and you shall then also see My glory established in your life.

149

I will never forsake you or leave you in the lurch. You may know very assuredly, My child, that I have picked you up - both you and your family - and AM caring for all of you with all My special attention.

150

It is true, My child, nothing shall ever separate you from My love; but you can - by shirking away from Me, and by turning your back to Me, by being waylaid by Satan's deceptiveness and by self-rejection. Do not do it, My child, for I AM always there waiting for you to turn back to Me.

151

Go out and experience My leading and provision. And make it easy on yourself by responding to My guidance, rather than seeking My guidance whilst agitatingly trying to force it to be. My guidance will come to you, My child, you need not come to it.

Respond to what you receive and do not seek to receive more, but seek to receive Me more. Bask in My presence, My child, and enjoy our fellowship of love together and do not seek what I may give you - also not My guidance - but seek Me, for I long for you to well and truly find Me.

152

As long as you run around seeking My guidance, My will, My provision, My anointing, My Spirit, My love, the knowledge of Me, facts about Me ..... all these things cause you to ever so often turn your back on Me in pursuit of them. Seek Me and live, My child.

153

I will never, never, never leave you in the lurch - I will never, never, never let you fall or even cause you to stumble, My child. Only stay with Me, and you shall lack no good thing, you shall experience My complete provision and My perfect rest.

154

Come to Me, My child! I am waiting to lead you into a vastly higher life than you have ever imagined possible.

155

Do not seek in vain to worship Me in ways taught by men, My child. I am not to be found in the activities of men or in experiences which are dreamed up and steamed up by men in a vain pursuit of an emotional encounter with Me. Neither am I to be found, or sought, in any emotional experience. I AM Truth, My child; I AM reality; I AM what I AM.

156

Losing yourself into Me means that you accept My all-sufficiency in all things, forsaking your own efforts to understand or to question the possibility of failure or of irresponsibility; forsaking all the various preconditions of what is required before you may come to Me, and of what is supposed to happen after you have come to Me.

157

I want you to abandon yourself to Me to the point of irresponsibility. Trust Me beyond the level of your understanding or knowledge - even beyond the level of your 'faith'. Just let go! And wait on Me instead of on your knowledge or planning or understanding or preparation or insight or any other thing.

158

I AM trustworthy; I AM loyal beyond your capability to imagine; I AM gracious and abundant in loving-kindness.

159

Relish those situations where, if I do not catch you, you will fall; where, if I do not give you what to speak, you will look the perfect fool; where, if I do not bear you up, you will perish; where, if I do not warn you, you will go astray; where, if I do not lift you to greater heights, you will not progress; where, if I do not shine My light upon you, you shall be in utter darkness; where, if I do not hold you up, you shall surely stumble.

160

Trust Me, My child, and live in Me - to the point of irresponsibility - like any loving child who leaves it in his father's hands to decide and to say and to guide and to provide and to heal and to mend and to love and to understand. I AM your Father and I love you!

161

Let Me truly become the purpose of your gatherings and let not your personal growth, either in quality or in quantity, be the purpose, though this may seem a noble cause. But rather seek Me, to worship Me and to honour Me and to display Me to those in your midst. Sell Me and My loving acceptance of those who have gone astray. Let Me be your all-encompassing and burning passion - that is your mission!

162

Should you know too much concerning the future, you will attempt to control those events or even regulate or cause them to happen. And then what should have been life, will have become death instead.

163

Receive the anointing of My Spirit, My child, and work in My kingdom the way My Spirit leads you.

164

Let not rejection by man trouble you, My child, but allow it time and time again to drive you back into My arms. I AM waiting there to receive you every time.

165

By focusing yourself on Me and on My promises and My declared and confirmed and reconfirmed relationship and attitude of care, love and acceptance toward you, you shall defeat every attack of the enemy.

166

Know, My child, that your times are in My hand; and you need not, indeed should not, worry in the least as to the misuse or utilization of your time. You shall not misuse your time or use it in the wrong way, for you have put Me in control, and therefore I AM. Rely upon this fact, My child, in freedom and ease, and you shall find rest.

167

Enjoy your condition; enjoy your circumstances; enjoy your freedom; enjoy the ease of your situation; enjoy the knowledge of your calling and the hope set before you; enjoy My presence, My control, My Fatherhood, My love; enjoy and rejoice, My Child. This is the secret! For as you start rejoicing in freedom and ease from all your many responsibilities, your eyes shall be opened to see Me, and My working, and My grace in controlling every circumstance in your life - even down to the smallest detail.

168

Why do you think Satan always tries to condemn My children, and to accuse them, and to put many burdens on their backs? Most feelings of 'responsibility' is not good at all, but is a fine-sounding and fine-looking camouflage that Satan uses to put both his own people and Mine (those who allow him that privilege) under bondage. And My children are also blinded by this load on their backs - and they look down to the ground and they are much aware of the load under which they are bowed down - and they don't see Me! Cast off all those loads, My child, and be free! Satan has no hold on you at all. You are Mine.

169

Hold fast My word, My promises and My truth, My child. If I have spoken it shall surely come to pass. Learn to, in any confusing circumstance or thought, to go back to My word, My promise in the situation, and then stand on that, rely on that, and wait and expect that to be and to become truth in all reality.

170

So many of My children never receive the blessings that I have promised them, because they do not allow Me to give it. So many of My children never even receive the promises I want to shower on them, because they simply do not allow Me to give it to them - they refuse to accept what I offer. As if My sources can be depleted by what they may receive from Me; as if it is a great sacrifice on My part to impart blessings - it is not! It is My desire and My nature to bless! And My sources and resources can never be depleted. In fact, the more I give the more they become.

171

Satan is the one who wants to take and not give; who wants to curse and not bless; who wants to break down and not build up. And even as he wants to hate and steal and kill and destroy and curse, I want (and that infinitely more so) to bless and to heal and to give and to impart life to all My children.

172

I do not expect My children to overcome on their own strength or efforts, but rather to overcome on the basis of My power and My word. Therefore stand on My word and expect Me to act. Never start out on the basis of what you ought to do or ought to have done - start out by reaffirming My word and by trusting Me, knowing that our relationship has become one of trust, love and acceptance.

173

Oh, My child, I see your tantrums and your anxieties. I see your fears and your doubts; your misgivings and even distrust - and your despair. And all of those happen to you because you are unwilling to abide My time and to accept My way for you. You have the choice, My child, to calmly and peacefully and trustfully and obediently wait for Me - for My time and My plan to come to fruition; or to throw tantrums and end up in anxiety and fear and sin by trying to force things your own way and into your own conceptions of what I have meant by My own words. No, child, no! Wait for Me and wait for My time. I love you too much - much too much - to accommodate your whims and desires and to subject Myself to your conceptions and plans. There are many surprises awaiting you, My child, and very pleasant ones at that, so do not despair.

174

Do not even try to understand the end before you begin to obey Me. Simply obey and enjoy being My servant; enjoy being in My service, leaving all the results to Me. And, child, the results shall not be lacking for ever. Wait and you will see. Do not despair. I love you.

175

Every weakness on your side is an opportunity for My strength.

176

Be then content with Me, My child. I am all you need. Your own improvement is not what is needed. It is your own death - a complete dying of all reliance on your own strengths, abilities, efforts and qualities - that is needed.

177

Defeatism is staring in despondency at your own efforts and failures, whilst forgetting and not looking and not relying on My completed victory.

178

As the rain falls down from heaven and does not return without watering the earth, so shall My words to you not return without accomplishing what I desire, My child. Do not despair therefore, thinking: when will all those promises and prophecies ever come to pass? In due time they shall. Therefore I say to you again, My child; trust Me in a simple and uncomplicated fashion, and enjoy every single thing that comes your way. Taste it and savour it in the sure knowledge that it has been sent by Me.

179

Do not try to analyze everything or even anything whether it be from Me or from Satan. You have become My sole property. Rely therefore upon My sovereign power in dictating your circumstances, and before ever analyzing anything, rather ask Me if you really feel you need to know. But you may know these all are from Me, whether directly or indirectly, and if you enjoy them all and thank Me for them all, they shall all become a victory to My glory: thus you shall please Me and grow unto the full stature of Christ.

180

A simple faith which steps out boldly in total dependence on Me is what pleases Me - and not knowledge. For knowledge has as its purpose to control events, but rather know Me, My child, in order to trust Me in a simple fashion, and I will cause you to understand all things - not to be in control, but to realize the magnificence of My wisdom and love and power more clearly, and thus to be filled with worship and thanksgiving.

181

I love your love, your worship and your thanksgiving. Do not withhold it from Me, My child.

182

Know therefore, again, My child, that I love you, and that I love you dearly. Accept yourself and forgive yourself as I have forgiven you.

183

Walk according to Me; follow in My every step, My child, and life shall become simple and uncomplicated, and joy and peace shall follow. Without faith you will never be able or willing to follow Me, and then no peace and no real joy will follow, and you will find yourself loaded down under all sorts of responsibilities and fears. Really, the one who has given his life to Me in order to follow Me and to do what pleases Me, but does so of his own accord and in his own strength, will find that his responsibilities and fears do not diminish, but that they rather increase, because now he not only has to contend with the normal responsibilities of the world, but also with those he took upon himself to follow Me and to please Me. And this is sad, because I have offered to take all of those burdens and to replace it with an easy yoke.

You have noticed the secret, have you not, My child? The secret is to put Me in control and then to follow in My steps. Not to remain in control yourself and then to try to follow Me as best you can. For if you are in control My voice shall be silent, for I am not subject to your control. Only by relinquishing your own rights and control, and by abandoning your life into Me, shall you find peace, and shall you find rest in Me.

Responsibility, My child, has become another word for unbelief, distrust, control by self and human effort. Make Me responsible by trusting Me and by entrusting Me with your life, and take My life upon you, and your fears and your burdens will evaporate in the face of My control and of My life in your stead.

185

Let not life become complicated - this will be a sure sign that your old life is back in control - but keep it simple by following My leading in true obedience. In this way I shall live in you, and you shall present your members to Me as instruments of righteousness.

186

Child, you are Mine, because I have chosen you to be Mine, and you have responded to My call.

187

Have no fear of failure and forsake all feelings of inferiority in favour of a simple and childlike trust in My acceptance and in My sovereign power to direct your steps and to do with your life according to My good pleasure.

188

Because you have given your life to Me, know that the way your life is unfolding, and the destiny it is directed towards, are most certainly that of My choosing and making.

189

Do not compare yourself to others, for you are too unique for such an exercise to have any meaning whatsoever. Relish in what and how I have made you, child. Stop seeking fault with yourself when you feel that you do not measure up to others.

190

Respond to My calling and you shall find peace and joy. Respond, for My purposes for you stand and shall not move - only move in to what I have prepared for you. My Word says: "He who is willing to do, shall know". Do not expect Me to explain everything to your pleasing, My child, for what I ask is for you to trust Me, and to walk by faith and not by sight. By responding and acting on this calling, all those things you never understood, yet knew were there, will become clear to you - but responding and acting in faith and in obedience come first; the knowing and understanding fully follow on.

191

Moses was My servant and he had to spend forty years in the wilderness tending sheep before the time came for him to be moved into his true purpose and calling. Do not be surprised therefore, if the time of your waiting and the time of your wilderness is also longer than you would have preferred it to be.

192

My kind, dit maak nie saak wat jy ookal alles prysgegee het, of wat jy ookal in hierdie wêreld kon wees nie; in My sal jy 'n duisendvoudig meer ontvang as jy volhard tot die einde toe. En groot sal jou vreugde wees wanneer die skille van jou oë afval en die dag van die vervulling van My beloftes aan jou aanbreek.

193

Weet ook, My geliefde, dat jy kosbaar is in My oë; hoog geag is; en dat Ek jou liefhet. Ag nie wat mense dink of hoe hulle teenoor jou reageer of optree nie, maar hou eerder vas hieraan: dat Ek jou ag en jou liefhet en goeie planne vir jou het. Jy is nie verstote nie; jy is nie verlate nie; jy is Mynel!

194

Let all your fears and doubts subside, My child, for they are unworthy of Me; they are unworthy of My feelings towards you; and they are unworthy of you, being a much loved child of an Almighty Father.

195

My dear child, as I behold the attack you are under, My heart bleeds with compassion and even grief, for I have also been under such attacks and I can identify with your state of mind. Only do not sin, My son! Wherever and whenever these things come (as they have to come) over My children, I suffer with them. But it is necessary that you be tested and tried and sifted. Only stand in the full amour of God, My child, stand and be not moved from the hope of your calling, for that has been decided and is firm and is not a lie and shall surely come to pass. Do not be moved away from your position of faith and patiently waiting for Me.

Do not despair at your feelings. I am big and strong enough not to be moved by your feelings. Remember always, My child, that I understand, because I have been where you are. Do not be worried any further because of your feelings. Satan manipulates your feelings. They are part of your circumstances - not part of your life in Me. Disregard your feelings, but seek Me - regardless of how you feel. And if you feel too knotted up to even seek Me, then know that even then and even especially then, I am still with you and for you, and your 'performance' of seeking Me well enough is not a prerequisite for My love and acceptance. Only your childhood is, and that has already been established in My Son Jesus.

197

Please trust Me in all things and at all times, for your faith and unquestioning trust opens the door to My blessings and My guidance in your life.

198

My son, have you noticed Me calling you 'son' - for such you are? Have you noticed My love for you? Have you noticed that I truly care - for your sake and not for Mine? Have you noticed that I give freely and not because I am forced to give? Neither your performance, nor your lack of performance influences any of these things.

199

No son need ever deserve his sonship and no son could ever deserve his sonship, but every son is required to obey his father. Obey Me then, My son, simply obey Me.

200

I reach out to you with the love of a father who sees that his son needs counseling and consolation. Only, I am your heavenly Father who will never make the mistakes that earthly fathers do make, and who never, never, never operates from or out of selfishness, irritation or foolishness. I know perfectly, I understand perfectly and I love perfectly. And nothing is impossible to Me.

201

My child, I know your thoughts, your questions, your desires, your anticipations, your doubts, your intentions, your love and your pain. And I understand. I do not reject or condemn, or add load to load, expecting you to 'perform' satisfactorily; expecting you to be in control of processes you cannot be and should never be. There are many things which are beyond your capability, which Satan would gladly give to you to deal with - thereafter gleefully enjoying your pain and condemnation and floundering beneath a load which you were never designed to carry. He will always give you those things which you cannot carry. My child, simply refuse to accept those loads. And whenever you are in doubt as to whether some problem is for you to bear and deal with or not, then come to Me and give it to Me anyway. I do not mind taking every burden from your back. In fact, I enjoy your freedom as well as Satan's frustration and defeat! And when I give you something to do, you shall know that it is from Me, for you shall have peace; and you shall recognize My burden by the fact that it is light; and you shall recognize My yoke by the fact that it is easy. And then, also, when you are in doubt about anything as to whether it is from Me or not, even after you have applied these tests I gave you, then you can still come and ask Me without any condemnation, for I do not condemn you for your lack of insight. I am the Light of the world, and all true insight comes from Me, whereas all deception (false insight) comes from My adversary. Why, then, would I ever condemn your lack of insight? However, child, for lack of discipline and obedience, My Holy Spirit will certainly convict you and eventually even punish you, should you persist in a way that is lacking in obedience and discipline. But leave that conviction with Me and listen diligently to the voice of My Spirit and discern My guidance and accept My guidance without any ifs and buts.

202

I never tell My children how long they have to wait, or exactly when any specific thing will happen, because they cannot be trusted with this information. My directions are always: wait, and watch, and pray, and rejoice in the meantime. And when it has occurred, then you shall know.

203

See, My child, that I am with you and that I am for you, and that I love you, and that you have truly entered into My service, and that I have also truly taken up responsibility to care for you and yours and to guide you always and to give to you the knowledge of what to do in My Kingdom and of what not to do, and to give to you all the equipment and ability and training that you need in order to perform that which I have given you to do or ever shall give to you to do.

204

Learn from your mistake, My child, but also learn that I don't blame you, I understand; I don't punish you, I forgive you; I don't relish in your discomfort, I give you an escape and a new start.

205

Van watter waarde sou die beloftes en die geskenke van 'n vader wees as die kind nie daar is, of nie geïnteresseerd is om dit te ontvang nie, of geen vertrouwe het op die waarde en waarheid van sy vader se beloftes nie, en daarom nie daarvoor wag en daarop staatmaak nie? Maar wanneer julle op My vertrou en op My beloftes staatmaak en bereid is om daarop te wag, eerder as om soos die wêreld te skarrel na die oënskynlik regte dinge; en julle bereid is om in stryd met die 'gesonde verstand' van die denke van hierdie eeu en tyd op te tree en vas te hou aan My en My voorsiening vir julle, sal Ek julle seën met die vervulling van My beloftes. En Ek sal julle seën met oorgloed van alles - ook van gesondheid.

206

Give Me all your love, My child, for I ask no more, but also no less.

207

Be at peace in My presence. Be at peace with your calling. Be at peace with your present and with your future. Be at peace in the knowledge that I, even I, am all you need and that I have begotten you and that I have chosen you to be Mine - forever.

208

I know, My child, that to wait is difficult and sometimes it even feels impossible, but if the farmer doesn't also wait patiently for the seed to grow and to come to maturity before he reaps the grain, it shall be a disaster, and the harvest shall come to nothing. And so you also, child, wait for the seed to grow and to come to maturity. And the harvest shall be plentiful.

209

If you plant out of season, it will be a failure, and if you reap out of season it will also be a failure. Therefore, My child, abide My time for all things.

210

Stop looking into the future to find your acceptance in My sight only there. It is yours already.

211

My children, My love for you knows no end and has no limit. And My love towards you is not a mere, empty, sentimental feeling. No, it has substance and impact. It is the essence of My being and of all My dealings with you. My love is not merely an idea in the mind which influences My actions and thoughts. No, it is reality and power, causing Me to be all that I am towards you: Complete provision, complete loving care and affection, complete assistance in all and every problem in your life, complete understanding of your thoughts and motives, of your fears and displeasures, of your uncertainties and questionings. I am love, My children, and what I do and what I am to you, is love. I intend to do you good and only good. I intend to lovingly provide everything you need while you are on earth, and to welcome you into My heavenly mansions once your task on earth has been fulfilled. I intend to be to you the Father who loves and provides for His children. I do not intend for you to need to go elsewhere to find food and clothing, or comfort. I do not intend to ever leave you alone and destitute, while smirking at your discomfort the way Satan would enjoy to do.

212

I never feel hurt in My feelings and angry towards you if you should make a mistake through lack of ability or maturity. I know and I understand, and I am there to help and to guide and to correct and to comfort. But I do get angry when My children turn their backs on Me and seek alliance with the world and with the enemy because I do not fulfill their needs the way they deem fit.

213

I give to you all My love and I want all your love. I give to you all My loyalty and dedication and I want all your loyalty and trust and dedication, for I am a jealous God.

214

I love to give to you all that you need. But most of all I want you to receive Me rather than My gifts, for you to love Me not because I give to you, but because you love Me. And if and when it seems as if I am withholding My gifts from you, My children, then know most assuredly that I am not withholding Myself from you!

215

Looking at your own mistakes and weaknesses does not alleviate or solve any of your problems - it merely compounds them. Whereas looking away from whatever weakness and whatever mistake you may discover in yourself or your past actions, you will come to see My perfection in their stead, and thus be released into the fullness of your present inheritance; and thus also into the even greater fullness that is to come when I come to gather My elect and to raise up My chosen ones to be one with Me and to reign with Me - to be My bride unto all eternity.

216

My love is such that I want to heal where there is sickness, and that I want to soothe every pain and to comfort all who are in need, and to bring release wherever there is bondage or fear. This you need never doubt. But I am also the God of eternity and My thoughts are higher than your thoughts; My plans are higher than your plans; My love is greater than your love; and My wisdom exceeds yours by far.

217

Look away from your abilities and thoughts and plans, and don't even try to understand Mine, for you cannot.

218

I love you, and I see no need and find no need to first change you and to first take away every weakness and possibility of making mistakes before I can love you.

219

My children, I have closely guarded your way and I have jealously protected you from all evil. I have enveloped you in My love and acceptance and have set your feet on a straight path. I have chosen you as My very own and have set your course to attain to My greatest heights - to be where I am and to experience the abundance of My blessings in the sure knowledge of your standing with Me, to experience the fullness of My Spirit flowing through you like streams and fountains of the purest of waters.

220

My children, I am with you as your Father, and not as your taskmaster. You may rest in My presence and in My provision. You may receive My blessings and all of My abundance - such that you need not lack a single thing while trusting Me for all that you need - without being guilty of neglect or laziness or irresponsibility. Only the world thinks in those terms, My children, but I do not and My children ought not.

221

I put no continuous demands for your continued acceptance and status in My eyes. I do not ask from you to perform satisfactorily in anything. I simply give My love and life and Fatherhood, and I ask your love and life and loyalty in return.

I will cleanse you from all unworthiness and from every idol and from every divided loyalty, until you are Mine completely.

Therefore, just keep setting your hearts on Me, My children, and I will cause the growth, and the cleansing, and the fruit to appear in due season.

222

Set your hearts on Me and not on your own effort to comply to what you think is necessary, or even your own efforts to love Me and to serve Me acceptably. Your own efforts can become a stumbling block, and can become the focus point of your loyalty - rather give Me all your loyalty and allow Me to do the rest.

223

Nothing that you have ever, ever done has escaped My notice and everything you have ever done wrong, I - even I - have eradicated in My blood. And everything you have done according to My plan and purpose and workings in your heart - these I have noted down in My book and in My memory, and I hold these before Me and before My Father, and I am going to recompense you greatly for them. And your joy shall be full to overflowing.

224

You shall lack nothing for I am your Provider, the Holy One of Israel, your God and your Father. Have no fear concerning your future, My child, it is in My hands, and I am able and eager to deal with it on your behalf. Relax and be even care-free in the knowledge that I - even I - have your future in My hands, and you need not burden yourself with that - not even in the least.

Be free of every worry and every concern as to what difficulties your future may hold, knowing that I know of every one of them already, and I say to you: Have no fear, for I am in control and not one of those difficulties have I not dealt with already. And not one of them have I not turned and employed as grace and favour towards you, My child.

Relax into My arms, I will provide, and I will bear every burden. And you: Take My burden and My yoke, for that you are able to carry. I love you!

226

My child, even though you reject yourself so easily and so many times, I have not once, not ever, rejected you and I shall never reject you. You reject yourself because you are not aware of My true feelings towards you; and because you become the prey of Satan's deception, pointing you to your own obvious deficiencies and getting you to measure yourself by human standards and reasonings, being influenced by human opinions. Whereas, My child, I love and accept and cherish you; and whereas I put no demands on you to be something that you are not, Satan uses every opportunity to do just that and to cause both you and your fellow men to reject and hate and abandon one another, yea even yourselves.

You will never find consolation and freedom in either yourself or others, My child, but in Me alone. And it is right for you to concentrate on Me and on My opinion and feeling towards you, and to be so filled with Me and My love and acceptance and joy in you, that you can become a source of the same love and joy and acceptance both to others as well as to yourself - and the latter one is more important than you think.

I want you to accept and cherish yourself the way I do. But you can only do it after you have come to realize and receive the love and acceptance and joy that I have towards you.

227

I know the doubts and the misgivings and the tantrums you are in, but these are not born from discontent or rebellion, My child, but is the result of the unwillingness of the flesh to be brought to nothing - to utter submission; to be brought into total control of the spirit. Be not surprised that these things are so, for even I have also experienced it in the flesh. In Gethsemane it was a great, great battle for the flesh to be finally and totally submitted to the will of the Father. And it is inevitable that you shall also experience both the weakness and the strength of the flesh: the weakness in being able to do what is necessary and right, and the strength in resisting the work and the leading of the spirit in its utter unwillingness to be subjected and to become as nothing; having lost all influence and having lost every hold it had to determine its own future or circumstances.

228

I became a man just like you; and if you are willing to follow through with your Gethsemane, then you will become a man just like Me.

Therefore, My child, My message to you today is to be encouraged! I conquered, and therefore you shall. Seek Me and seek My presence continually. Do not be discouraged by the weakness and discomfort of your flesh. Seek Me and hide yourself in My victory, for My strength is made perfect in your weakness, and My victory is brought into effect by your losing yourself into Me.

I have called you as My own special and treasured possession. And now I am teaching you to trust Me in all things - especially in those you do not understand; those that seem either impossible, or senseless, or contradictory.

230

I have promised My children to provide for all they need, for I am a good Father. Only, it is not for the children to demand from the Father, and neither is it for the children to prescribe to the Father. But it is for the children to trust the Father and to expect all good things from Me.

231

Anxiety, My child, is not the answer, but faith and trust in Me is the answer. So believe Me and My words to you. And trust Me. I am still in control. I love you.

232

Three things do I ask of My children: 1 - That they receive and trust Me as the Father who loves and cherishes them; who will provide all they need; who is the Giver of good things, not of bad things. 2 - That they never demand from Me what they want; but ever remain in the relationship of child towards Father. 3 - And that they relinquish every preconceived idea in which to limit My power and My course of action.

233

If My children will trust and obey Me, rather than their own conceptions, then will I - even I - break down the works of the devil in their lives and in their circumstances, because for this reason have I come into the world: to break down the works of the devil. But they need to allow Me to work in their lives, for without their own decision to obey Me in this, I will not act, for I will not override their will and their decision by force. I am still their loving Father, but I have decreed that man must make his own decisions. Even though I want all men to be saved - if man will not choose to be saved, he shall not be saved. Even though I want to free them and to rid them from all the works of the devil - if they will not choose to follow Me and to allow Me to do this for them, then I won't. But still I am their loving Father and I want them to be set free.

234

As you move your view and your expectations away from yourself, either as source or as purpose, then shall you receive the full anointing of My Spirit, and then and thus only can you be freed to move into the fullness of My calling for you.

235

My plans and purposes will never be attained by your struggles and efforts, My child, but they are solely to be obtained and brought to pass by My working and My working only. Before you really and truly lay down your own efforts and let your will subside and be laid aside completely, will My will not come to fruition in your life

236

You see, My child, inherent in man is his own will which is very, very dominant. Man was created that way, because I created him that way in My likeness. But what I have asked from man ever since creation, is to subject his own will unto Me and to choose (with his own will) Mine instead.

237

Sin is not in having a will of your own, because I have created you in that way, and you are to exercise your will to make the right decisions in life. My desire is for man to choose Me - to love and to trust Me - above all else, and to do that with no coaxing and pushing or force from My side, rather with Me calling and drawing and wooing like a lover would. But sin comes when man's will becomes focused on himself and on attaining his own purposes and plans in his own way and timing.

238

My child, I know your heart, that it is set on Me. And to Me, that is what is really important, for when that is the case, then I am willing and able and eager to assist you in all your choices in life, yea, even to make them for you and on your behalf. But to those whose hearts are really only set on themselves and on their own interests and well-being and plans and even ministries in My Name - to them I give no real answers, for I am not an instrument in the hand of man, and I am not to be manipulated to afford to the desires of man. And therefore will such a one be deceived in many ways whilst even thinking that it is Me speaking to him and guiding him on. A heart set on self is a sure way into deception and into receiving guidance from the wrong sources without being able to discern it as not coming from Me.

239

You need to lay aside every preconceived idea born from either distrust or personal ambition, and you need to be as clay in My hands - having no will of its own regarding the purposes and work of the Potter, but simply being available and relishing the attention and the loving, caring hands of the Potter.

240

Walk in My wisdom and always know and remember that it is not your own power, not your own authority, not your own glory, not your own honour, not your own wisdom - but it is Mine. I have chosen you; I have prepared you, I have equipped you, and I send you forth. Be careful, My child, to always give the glory to Me and to Me only. Never to any man, and never, never accept it to be bestowed on you. You know that man cannot deal with glory and honour - that it always corrupts fleshly man.

241

My child, I have established My word according to which I have sent forth My servants, which is: Go and preach My kingdom - not the kingdom of man. And especially not the kingdom of those very servants of Mine whom I have sent forth to preach My kingdom. I am a jealous God, who will not share My glory with another, and neither will I share My dominion and My Lordship with fallen man. Where fallen man rules and reigns in his own name, My jealousy is not aroused because I have ordained fallen man to rule over fallen man in accordance with the amount of authority that I allocate each man. But when man - any man - rules in My Name, then he is outside My allotted authority, and I shall not allow him to continue indefinitely. In My grace I will warn, and in My grace I oftentimes simply remove such a one from leadership for his own salvation's sake. But, then again, often I allow some of those to whom I have given this message of grace, and who refuses to give heed or to understand, to continue in ministry. And some of those even become great in the eyes of both My people and the world - but they have had their reward; they shall have no reward from Me.

242

My love shall never end, for it has no beginning. My love is eternal as I am. My love does not depend on anything and it is not influenced by anything, because I am love, and I am God. That is what I am and that is how I am. Therefore, depend on Me and depend on My love, for it shall never end.

243

If you learn to trust Me in spite of apparently contradictory conditions, then you shall be made strong and be equipped for the walk ahead.

244

Again I would say to you, My child, that I know you; that I know all about you; that I know where you come from, what you have done, what you have been, what you could have done, what you could have been, and where and what and whereat you are now. I know your past, present and future. I know, even, what your future would have been had you chosen differently to what you did. I know what you would have been doing in your spare time, and in your work. And I know exactly what you are doing now, and why, and whereto it all is leading. I know your thoughts and your unspoken cries and tears; your desires and needs; your whims and incapacities; your fears and anxieties; your hopes, and your faith in Me and in My word to you. I know all. And I am in control of all things. Also of your life. Also of your future. Also of your past. I could have caused you to decide differently in the past, and I could have caused you to decide the way you did! You gave your life to Me long ago. Believe then that I have taken it! Believe then that I am doing with it according to My good pleasure. Believe then that I am a Rewarder of the one who diligently seeks Me. Believe then that My intentions with you are good and that I love you. Believe then that I will also work out your future path in line with My sovereign and perfect will. Believe then that I have not forsaken you and that I am your Friend, and that you are My friend, because you do do those things I command you to do. Believe then what I say about you, rather than believing your own fears and thoughts. Believe then that I am capable and willing to lead you and guide you every step of the way according to My choosing and plan, leading you to My destination - which is Me! Believe then that I shall always be there to keep you, to protect you, to provide for you, and to give you My work to do for Me.

245

Adversity and tribulation are friends and not enemies. These are the means by which your love for Me is sanctified and proven. And these are the means by which your love for yourself is shown out in order to be sacrificed and denied in favour of Me. Is this an unreasonable thing for Me to ask? Is this not true love, that a man should lay down his life for the One he loves? Was that not the same way in which I proved My love for you? If you love Me, then welcome adversity and tribulation as friends, not enemies.

246

I have undertaken to provide and care for you. Therefore, never again express an opinion of disbelief in My continuing support and provision. There is nothing that you need to ever expect from man or to make known to man in the way of needs, for I am your Support and Provision. Never again make known to man that you are in financial or any other kind of distress in the natural. Make known to them that I am your King and Provision and Support. And then I am. Express your faith, not your unbelief! If you love Me and trust Me and truly long to be one with Me, then be as one who died to all that is from the world, and stop thinking and acting like the world, and stop seeking any support or guidance from the world or from man in general. Be then dedicated to Me and to Me only. Not only in giving Me your everything, but also in expecting from Me your everything. I love you.

Again I say to you, My child, do not fear! For fear is faith in My inability and unwillingness to be to you the Strength and Support that you need. Fear is faith in My unwillingness to act on your behalf; to be on your side in the battle against the enemy. Fear is being caught up in a spiral of negative thoughts concerning My positive involvement in your situation; of Me truly loving you, and therefore truly being with you and being on your side, fighting for you. Fear is being unable to see Me as your Friend, and therefore, also being unable to perceive Me as having died for you, specifically; as having been broken and as having suffered in your stead, specifically. Fear is being unable to discern the light in any given situation, and only seeing darkness ahead and around. Fear is that thing that binds you to earth in a stupor of inactivity, instead of being able to soar ahead in faith and security - trusting Me and My word. Fear is being bound by your own insecurities and thoughts, rather than being free in Me. Fear is obeying the negative, instead of obeying Me. Fear is to give heed to threatening situations, acting in accordance; rather than giving heed to Me and My words, present and applicable in that situation.

Fearing the Living God is giving heed to the Living God in awe and reverence, obeying His every command. Fearing anything or anybody else is giving reverence and worship to that thing instead of to the Living God only; being obedient to that thing, rather than to Living God only. Therefore, My child, fear nothing and nobody except the One and Only Living God - Your Father and Friend and Saviour. I love you!

My kingdom is to be understood in spiritual terms and not in physical. My kingdom is one of peace and of love and of joy; of righteousness in thought and in action. My kingdom is one of ability and strength; of victory over all the power of the enemy; of supernatural endowment of authority to withstand and to vanquish every attack from the enemy. My kingdom is being part of My rule and reign, of My own Kingship and Lordship over all of creation. The natural, physical world, My child, is but a small, small part of the whole of creation. And nothing is excluded from My Kingship and Lordship, and therefore also the natural, physical world shall presently be subjected into complete and permanent submission to My Lordship. That is the Day you are looking forward to! That is the Day My Word speaks about in glorious and glowing terms. That is the Day of culmination, in which My victory (and yours) over the enemy shall be consummated into the 'coming of My Kingdom' to Earth. That is the Day all creation is waiting for with bated breath. And that Day is very near. But in the meantime, My child, is My Kingdom of a spiritual nature, already established in all the rest of creation but this small part called Earth. Know Me then as King of all, as well as King to come, when you shall become part of My Kingdom. Until then, be part of My Kingdom in Spirit by reigning in spirit, whilst serving in flesh; by being one with Me in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, whilst being My slave and soldier, forsaking yourself in humility and gratitude and joy, during all the days of your still being in the flesh. I have provided for you to reign in life, whilst forsaking yourself in the flesh. This is My design and purpose: that if you deny yourself and share in My sufferings in the flesh, you shall also reign with Me in the body of My resurrection.

Thus remember and take it to heart, child, that you are already a co-regent with Me!! - over a vast empire! Submit yourself then gladly to Me through My Holy Spirit, and in that power and authority, rule over all the power and authority of the enemy in My Name in preparation of full kingship once the Day of your release into My fullness has come. Be then also willing and eager to forsake all in gladness of heart; in joy and peace and love, fulfilling all righteousness, that you may be counted worthy on that Day.

I love you.

Early and late, again and again, have I warned My children and My people to heed My word which says: 'Serve Me only', but they would not listen. Therefore the time has come for My warnings to be put into actions of retribution and punishment. Not everyone who says to Me: 'Lord, Lord', shall enter into the Kingdom of God, and not every child of Mine shall receive a full inheritance. I have decreed and purposed that only those who truly love Me above all else, yeah, above the world and above themselves, shall receive the full blessings I have laid aside for such as those. I shall not be waylaid in My way and purposes by any amount of coaching, conniving or preaching by man, supposedly using spiritual laws set by Me. I am not an instrument to be used by man by any means, and neither are My angels I have sent forth to minister to those who will inherit salvation. The time for My righteous indignation against man's selfishness and idolatry, serving and loving the ways of the world; to bring to a complete end all such iniquity - and especially that done in My Name, whilst actually serving self and the world - has come.

I call and I give; I send and I equip; I make you a vessel unto Myself, and I fill that vessel with My own goodness, and I use that vessel at My time, in My way and for My purposes. Simply be that vessel, My child, in freedom and ease.

My child, how I do love you! You are not simply one of a crowd; no, you are My special and treasured possession. How then, would I ever forsake you, cast you to a side, forget about you? How then, would I ever be able to simply ignore you, ignoring your pleas and cries for Me to be near you, to be with you, to be in you, to be your life; and turn away, and allow Satan and his forces of darkness to rob you from Me; to steer your path away from My perfect destination for you; to lead you straight into ruin and destruction, death and failure? How then, would I allow that which is near and dear to Me to be robbed or deceived with Me simply looking on? How then, would I be silent in your times of distress unless it is with a holy and gracious and loving purpose? I am not able to sit idly by whilst you go wrong, or come to grief, or are being robbed or misled by the enemy. Satan is a vanquished foe, and has no right or power over you, for you are Mine. Satan has lost all privilege of destroying your life or destiny, of robbing you out of My hands guiding you and keeping you on My path for you, leading to My destiny for you. You are Mine! And I am yours! Will you now accept this simple fact? And live by it? I implore you, My child, My precious one, accept Me and My word to you once and for all. And live by it! Doubting neither My intentions and ability towards you, nor your position of sonship and of being My special property, being on the path I have put you on; being free from Satan's deceit and lies; being on course to My destination for you. Just keep on going. I love you.

Once again will I shake heaven and earth, and whatever has not been built on the Rock of Holiness and Truth, shall crumble and come to ruin. Therefore, My child, am I presently pleading with My church to enter into My presence in true holiness, and to hide under the shadow of My wings; to take refuge in the shelter of the Almighty. I have called again and again; and I am still calling and exhorting My children to come out from amongst the darkness and the compromises of those whose minds have been conformed to the ways and the thinking of this world. Satan is keeping My people captive in many devious ways, yet I am calling them to come out of his system and his bonds of control via human needs, human selfishness and human ability, denying My ability and active willingness in being the strength in all your weaknesses. And his bonds are no stronger than the response of your heart to My call; to the response of each and any child of Mine held captive by him in this way; for once you call and say yes to My call for you to come out from under his control, does My almighty power loose you and free you from under Satan's lies and deceit. I am calling and coaxing in this way at present, My child, but few, so few, are responding by answering My call! And the time is so short before their opportunity to respond passes forever. I have anointed you as My servant and minister to echo My call for My children to make no further compromise with the world and its ways, nor with sin to obey its commands, nor with Satan, deceiving them via the world and its media; via their own fleshly desires; via the church system which has come under his control - deceiving them with lies and half-truths; hiding the lie under a covering of pretense and misrepresented truth. I hate all this!! And I am going to demolish this work of his from the face of the earth, even before I remove him and his helpers with him. But you and those of My children who are responding to My call to be clean and to be cleansed totally, will I - even I - protect and keep and cherish in the coming days, and keep them safe and secure in My presence during the coming shaking. So keep on being My vessel and My minister in calling forth everyone who is willing to listen and obey My voice regardless of what the world or the church system says or demands from them. What I demand is holiness and truth, whilst trusting Me in true faith; not trusting the world nor its ways, nor your own ability or thinking - no, but trusting Me and My word to you. I love you.

By those who come to Me in their need and in their distress, I shall be a Father and a Saviour, yea even a Friend as no other can be. I shall be to them a pillar and a support, a shield and a fortress. I shall be to them a Help in deed, and not only in words.

I love you and I know all your needs. In fact, I am the One who has made you; created you with those needs. But be willing and remain willing to forsake any and every need of yours in favour of Me and My needs and desires. And then shall all your own needs and desires also be fulfilled to overflowing - in due time. Endure, therefore, My child, every hardship that comes your way. Endure every unfulfilled desire and need, knowing that that is bearing an abundant, yea a superabundant harvest for you in My Father's Kingdom. Enjoy, therefore, and welcome your present hardships! They are not in vain, and they are not born out of disfavour or lack of interest on My side. They are born out of My love for you and your family. So endure to the end, My child, and you shall look back on your present hardships and deficiencies and frustrated desires and needs, with joy and gladness of heart - seeing My love for you in all of this.

Know! - that God knows!

Do then everything in My Name, and speak then everything in My Name. And what cannot be done or said in My Name, rather leave it unsaid and undone.

258

I am and I remain forever the Friend and Saviour of My loved ones.

259

You need not prove yourself to Me in any way, My child. I love you and I ask your love in return: simply, uncomplicatedly, completely. You need not keep laws, make laws or prescribe laws to yourself or to others. The way to Me is not 'doing' or 'doing not'. The way to Me is Jesus, and only Jesus. There is no other way. The 'do's and don'ts' shall be the result of a living relationship with Me, it never is the way to Me.

Know that the calling of God upon your life is not something which is just by accident or per chance, but yea, even as with one of old you can say: 'From my mother's womb hath the Lord chosen me'. Yea, the Lord has chosen you for a plan and a purpose.

And happy is the man who finds that plan and that purpose. Yea, that plan and that purpose may seem to many to be a mystery; may seem to many to be hid, even in the things of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, but know this: that even as you desire to seek the Lord your God; even as you do hunger and thirst after His righteousness; even as you do cut off all that which would hinder thee even from seeking the Lord your God, His plan and His purpose would become plain, would become so clear that you would know this is the way - that you must walk in it.

So know that the Lord your God want and is willing to lead you into the perfect plan for your life.

Precious in My sight is the death of My holy ones. I am guarding the feet of My saints, to lead them in paths of righteousness and on into the green, green pastures of My presence. I am ever with them to guard them and to keep them safe from all danger, for they are Mine, and they are to Me a treasured possession - precious and beautiful.

And I love them, now and forever. And yet, they need to be refined and purified in the heat and adversity of affliction and pain, and ultimately death. But in death there is life, and in pain there is healing, and in tribulation there is victory, and in the end there is the beginning. And the new is forever, whilst the old was but for a moment. Therefore, fear not! I am with you, to keep you, to guard you, to love you, to mold you, to save you, to make you Mine indeed with no spot or wrinkle or impurity, to bring you to perfection in Me in Life. You are precious to Me. I love you, forever.

I seek your undivided, unconditional, and unadulterated love and attention. If you seek Me with yourself as purpose - even your own salvation, peace, joy or comfort - that is not unadulterated love, that is simply to use Me in love for yourself.

I desire for your own sakes that you learn to love Me for who I am and not for what you may get from Me - not even in order to obtain spiritual treasures from Me. Let Me be your greatest reward in the process of relinquishing yourself, together with all your own desires and plans and own purposes of life.

Do not fall into a negative way of thinking, expecting life will be full of difficulties and the way ahead continually hard. I have prepared good things for you to enjoy. You follow the Good Shepherd.

264

My dear child, I have indeed undertaken to provide for you and yours. I have not said that you need to provide or plan for anything in advance. I have spoken often, as in the past so also in the present, that I am the Keeper and the God of all those who put their trust in Me. I have called you to be with Me as one, My child - and this is a high calling! I will provide for you, always, and to the end. I will be with you wherever you go, and I will not forsake you or leave you in the lurch. Therefore, DO NOT FEAR!

Immediately and at once, the moment you pray to Me and ask Me anything as a child towards his Father, do I hear you, and do I respond to what you ask; to what you say; to what you do. I am your Father, who does care for you, and care greatly. I am not impervious to your pleas and cries for help and guidance. I hear them all, whether spoken out loud, or send to Me in your heart and thoughts, or simply when speaking to Me and about Me in your mind. I know them all; I hear them all, and I care about them all. Know then, most assuredly, that I have heard all your pleas that you have spoken out of late to Me in your heart and with your mouth, and that I have already responded to them all.

Wait then patiently, My child, for My responses to reach you in practice and the reality of your material and emotional existence. I love you dearly.

DO NOT FEAR! - for that grieves Me. It is a blemish on our relationship and it is an attack on our love and trust. Fear has NO place in our relationship, only TRUST has! Abandon yourself then, in My arms - trusting Me UNCONDITIONALLY!

267

TRUST ME, for in that is both your strength and your salvation; both now and in days to come - because I love you.

268

Don't expect from Me to tell you beforehand what you ought to speak or not. Wait upon Me to move in your spirit before you say or do anything - and then speak My words and act in accordance with My leading.

269

My child, I know all your needs and I am able to provide what you need. Do not even begin to look at anything material or at anything you do or need to do, as being your security and provision for the days to come. I AM! I can still send the ravens to feed you and yours. And I am still the God who provides food from heaven and water from a rock. Be very careful not to focus and not to trust on wind. Focus and trust in Me. I am Jehovah Jireh, your Provider.

270

My child, I know and understand all your present feelings of inadequacy and even insecurity. I have been the One who has orchestrated and arranged your life and circumstances to be exactly where you are right now. Have no fear, My child, as to the future; as to provision for food and clothing; as to a house to stay in; as to care and protection and a future for your children; as to love and tenderness in your dealings with those in need; as to care and protection for you and yours; as to healing and health for your whole family. I have undertaken these things and I shall also perform them. I have not brought you thus far only to leave you now to work out the rest by yourself. I have called you to be Mine and I care for all those who are Mine in all respects.

271

I care for all the needs of My children, but My child, I do not care in the way the world does; and I do not act the way the world does - in line with human understanding, human reasoning, human control and human glory and ability. No, My ways will always be above and beyond that of man and of the world. I will always confuse the wise of this world and confound the intelligence of this world. I will never submit to man and his ways, for then will I also submit to Satan. I will always do the unexpected, twisting and turning in ways you could never foresee or comprehend. But if you follow Me wherever and whenever and however I lead, you will never go wrong. However, the world will think you are mad and you yourself will often also doubt the sanity of your actions and beliefs. But, My child, do not fear, neither despair, for I know exactly what I am doing, and if you simply follow Me you will never go wrong. Trust Me and love Me and follow Me with single-hearted devotion in simplicity of mind and action. Thus will you be and will you become what I have purposed you to be. I love you.

272

My child, I care for those who are Mine. I know them by name, and I know all their faults and inadequacies. I do not repay them in accordance with their sins or transgressions. I forgive them. One day shall everyone, also those who are Mine, have to give account of all their deeds, but I will still be there to forgive and to pardon. And I will also be there to reward every selfless deed of love and dedication to Me. I will not leave a single deed of service to Me unnoticed or unrewarded.

273

Child, I am willing to forgive every transgression and every sin except pride and arrogance, lifting itself up against Me and My Anointed, refusing to budge and to bend before My ways and My higher thoughts and purposes. Yes, My child, even if one of My children be misled into such arrogance and proudness of heart, he shall not go unpunished - even as Satan did not go unpunished and shall not go unpunished.

274

In your life, My child, am I installing and working a humble and contrite spirit which will never exalt itself against Me; which will never consider itself to be somebody deserving glory and consideration; which will never fall into pride, thinking itself better than anybody else, but will always give the glory to Me and to Me only. This is a painful process, My child, and a long, drawn-out process. But its end-result is worthy of the process. So, persevere and do not try to sidestep or shorten My ways with you. I love you.

275

Be at peace in My provision and in My knowledge of all your needs and cares and circumstances; in My loving attention and glorious ability to meet all your needs and to dictate all your circumstances. Rejoice! I love you.

276

I love you with a love great enough to allow this crisis in your life. And if you will trust Me in this, you will discover that it was no more than an opportunity for you to truly discover My care and ability in practice. You need to make that transition between principle and practice, between theory and reality. I am worshipped in spirit and in truth - not in flesh and in theory. My words and promises to you are not merely nice philosophical ideas; no, they are truth, they are reality, and if they are accepted into your hearts, they shall bear an eternal fruit and shall not return to Me empty.

277

My child, I am and I always will remain the God who Provides and who Heals. And those who put their trust in Me will always find that this is true. But most of My children are too afraid of the possible consequences to trust Me in this and therefore they never get to know Me as such.

278

I am able to tell you when and where you go wrong, should you go wrong. And I will! - should you go wrong. But if I remain silent, then accept My silence as approval of your actions and ways, and not as a rebuke! I never, never throw tantrums or stop speaking as a means of punishment like children or childish adults do. I am God, and I shall not be silent when something needs to be said. I can move mountains and split oceans with My voice. How then would I not be able to get through to you, if you do want to hear from Me?

279

Why not rather be like Me when I was on earth, and be the least to the point of death if need be? It was the Pharisees who always insisted on being right themselves, even though they seldom were. Why not rather accept wrongs done to you, and be the first to forgive the other without even making the wrong done known, let alone rubbing the other's nose in it? Love covers a multitude of sins! Why not rather allow Me to be to you a source of grace and mercy, than allowing Satan to be to you a source of self-righteousness and anger and arrogance and stubbornness? I love you. He hates you. I will help you to do these things if you let Me. But that will be at the cost of your own desires and needs to be right, to be the best, to be noticed, to be in control, to be appreciated, to be respected, to be considered, to be esteemed. Let My opinion of you, and My knowledge of all the facts and nuances involved in every case be sufficient to you. I love you.

280

I will be your ability. I will be your wisdom. I will be your knowledge. I will be your Guide. I will be your Commander. I will be your strength. I will be your Purpose and not your own glory. I will be your Provider, every day, in everything, forever. I will be with you and in you. And I will work through you. You have to trust Me - that is your part.

281

My child, again I, your Lord, your Master, even your Father, your Friend, repeat these simple, yet all-important words to you: I love you, do not fear!

282

I am God, your Father and your Friend. And I am always with you to guide you onwards on My chosen path for you and yours. But I want willing, yeah eagerly willing, servants and children. Those who serve Me half heartedly shall I in the end spew out of My mouth. Thus, then, "making everything easy, and wanting everything comfortable and fitting into my shape of things and into my own plans and likes and dislikes", is the motto and driving force of the one who serves Me for his own purposes, half-heartedly. If you are truly willing to forsake your own purposes and likes and dislikes, let then everyone who makes his choice choose for himself what he shall do: either serving Me with his whole heart, or not at all. Doesn't My word say that I would rather that you be hot or cold, but when you are lukewarm I will spew you out of My mouth? I am either worthy to be given first place in your life, or I am not worthy to be given first place in your life. The choice is each one of yours to make. I will never force you into the right decision. Yet, always remember that I am your Father and also your Friend, if you do whatever I command you to do.

I love you!

Again I say to you: Persevere to the end - right to the end! - and you shall receive the prize due to him who overcomes. I shall be there waiting for you! And I shall be the One crowning you with the crown of victory. And I shall be the One rewarding you with the just and sure and eternal reward of full sonship in My Kingdom. And I shall be the One taking you into My arms as My bride and companion for evermore. I love you!

284

Know then and see that I am a God who is true to His word, and who fulfills every promise He makes.

285

My dearest children - why do you allow Satan to take your focus off Me and put it on your circumstances? Did I, the Lord your God, not promise to supply your every need? Am I a man that I should lie?

See, according to My Word, what has happened to My servants who got restless and felt (emotions!) that I had forgotten them - failed them in fact - and took matters into their own hands. Abraham fathered Ishmael, Moses killed a man, Peter cut off the ear of the servant in the Garden.

I know your anguish - but did I not tell you not to fret? For I, the Lord your God, knows how many hairs there are on each of your heads.

Yes, I know the question is "When?" Do I not carry the universe? Does a sparrow fall without My knowing? As you expect Me to fulfill My promises, so do I expect you, My children to fulfill yours. Recap your prayers, and do not find your situation strange.

What prompts my servants to take matters into their own hands when they feel estranged from Me? That I seem late? Nothing else but PRIDE, prompted by fear. And I have said that I will not tolerate pride in any of My true disciples. The hour has come, My children, that My glory will be shown. And then, I need you, My chosen ones, to have nothing within you except My love, My understanding, My will, My peace and strength - all gifts I give to those who endure to seek My will daily.

Be careful, My dear ones, that pride prompted by fear does not turn into rebellion against Me. The evil one will try his utmost to sidetrack you at this point of the race. And pride has many, many forms. This you have been pointed out in many ways. Anger is a form of pride; disappointment is a form of pride; fear is a form of pride; despondence is a form of pride; lack of compassion is a form of pride. Even depression is a form of pride! Self-righteousness is an extreme form of pride. And I resist the proud! I will not tolerate it amongst My true disciples. For My Spirit cannot function if any form of pride is found to be present.

Trust Me, My children. My promises stand firm. I have heard your prayers and supplications. I know you seek to do My will and I am well pleased. But the road you have chosen for My sake is not easy - that I have never promised. I have told you accordingly and set an example accordingly that it is a road of persecution, of suffering, of great loss - in order to gain eternal Life. In order to reign with Me, My children, you must endure.

Stand firm in your faith (faith without works is dead) and rest in Me, for My burden is light and My yoke is soft. I am with you, always, and in everything. I love you!

286

Soos jy, My kind, 'n innige liefde en erbarming en verlange na jou kinders se teenwoordigheid het, en soos jy omgee vir hulle en nooit goedsmoeds sal toesien dat hulle benadeel word, of seerkry, of valslik beskuldig word nie; en soos jy nooit sal stilsit en stilbly wanneer hulle gevaarlike of verkeerde dinge doen nie, net so sal Ek nooit stilbly wanneer julle in gevaar is, of verkeerd doen, of verkeerd behandel word nie. Net so, en meer so, gee Ek vir jou om om jou by My en vir My te hê vir ewig.

287

Wherever and whenever you call to Me and speak to Me, do I hear you, listen to you, and care to answer you and to do those things you ask from Me. I care to do this, not because I have to, but because I want to, because you are one of My chosen ones, precious in My sight. Let then nothing ever distract you from coming to Me and speaking to Me and telling Me your deepest desires and needs and purposes; also your deepest fears and anxieties - knowing that

I listen and care and will answer you and do something about it. And My 'something' will be the best for all concerned. Wait then also, always, for Me to act in My time.

288

My son, surely this is what I call you, and what I will keep calling you till the end of time: My son! And I want for you to remember that, and to never fear that I will abandon you or that I will drive you away, out of My presence. Forever will you be under My special protection, and forever will you be the object of My love and special care, even as a son is to a father. I love you. This I have told you many, many times. And I have meant what I said with the holiness and the authority and the truth and the incomparable majesty which is Mine and Mine alone. Therefore, take it to heart, son, and live by it! Live in My love and live for My love!

289

Did you notice that I am not full of blame and anger towards you because of the fleshly tantrums and discomforts you had of late? I understand! And I care! But the flesh will have to go! It really hates Me and loves only itself. It even hates those born of Me and wishes them only evil, and no good. It thrives on praise and success, and shrivels and shouts at discomfort and failure and rejection. It insists on its own way and disallows everybody else theirs. It is jealous in the extreme, and wants to be noticed and applauded in every case. It has no real sympathy with the discomfort and pain and fears of someone other than himself, apart from that born from the fear that it may happen to himself, or the remembrance of what had happened to himself. It shows no sign of repentance over wrongs done in the past, apart from those designed to evoke sympathy or gain - it knows no true repentance from the heart, for it also cannot change from what it is: hate, selfishness, pride and arrogance, self-pity and misery, revolving around 'I' in a never-ending spiral. And it does not leave its position of dominance without great pain and without an all-out fight! This is the fight you are in! I will not let up, and you should not let up, before the battle is won, and you are truly set free from this inborn evil. This is because I truly love you, and because you asked Me to help you get rid of the flesh with all its aspirations and whims and desires and passions. Therefore, understand the nature of the battle you are in, and rejoice!

I love you.

The work that I shall do, I shall not do with self-sufficient vessels, but only with vessels who have become emptied of themselves and are clean.

291

You need not understand Me, you need to trust Me. You need not understand your circumstances, you need to trust Me. He who understands has no need to trust, but he who does not understand has to learn to trust. Therefore do I allow circumstances in your lives which you cannot understand.

292

My child, haven't I been there whenever you needed Me in the past? Has there even been a single crisis in your life in which I haven't been there, and through which I haven't borne you? Have I ever been untrue or unfaithful in the past - to you or to any of My true children? Haven't I been the One who has assisted you in every dark night and in every storm?

293

Have then no fear of the future, for I am in control. Have no fear as to provision for all your needs, for I love you. Have no fear as to the future of your children, for I am your Father - and theirs! Have no fear as to the glory of My Name or to be shown to stand ashamed before the sons of men - whether before the world, or before My children opposing you - because I have chosen you and I am true to My word.

294

I am not involved in any attempt by you or by any man to seek gain for himself. I shall never be an instrument in man's hand to further himself or his own purposes. I am holy. Nevertheless will I never leave you nor forsake you. I will always provide all you need, for you are Mine.

295

The time shall come when you shall be sent forth with My messages and My authority. And then you shall move within and with My power enabling you, but you have to learn and to accept now already that I am and remain in control. No expectation and no plan or purpose of your own may interfere! My power shall not be able to flow through a vessel that is clogged up with his own ideas, expectations and plans or needs! Trust Me enough, My child, to abandon all your own needs and expectations, even though it may seem to you that only a vacuum remains. I have not chosen you for nothing, and I am not training and equipping you for nothing.

But also, My training is not easy, nor is it of an 'instant' kind. It takes time! Be then prepared, My child, to complete your training even though it is longer than you expected. It is not longer because you failed, but because you succeeded!

My child, why do you blame yourself for what is happening? Why do you keep telling yourself that only if I did this or that differently, then all of this would not have happened? Why do you seek fault when you ought to seek the good? Yes, My child, there is good in this whole thing. What might look like a catastrophe to you, is an opportunity to Me.

Where then, shall you turn to, but to Me? This is My desire for you, My child. But beware, lest you be focused on the solution of your problem more than on Me; lest you are led into the error of seeking Me to solve your problem, rather than seeking Me because of your problem. I am not the instrument, My child, I am the Purpose! Therefore, forsake any gain you may ever seek for yourself, and welcome every problem causing you to turn to Me in your helplessness.

I love you, and I am there to help you. Come to Me!

297

Be careful, My child, never to jump to quick conclusions regarding any of My children, for Satan is always there and ready to accuse them both before Me and before you. And he will always put them in as bad a light as he can, highlighting the wrong and hiding the good.

298

Beloved, you are blessed because you have put your trust and confidence in Me. I will not fail you. I will keep you from falling. Because I am at your right hand, you will not be shaken. I will bring you to the fulfilment of all I have planned for you. Trust Me!

299

Overactivity and anxiety, rather than quietness and confidence, are the downfall of many of My children. Don't be like that, but trust Me in My ability to guide you along in a firm and sure way.

300

My child, as the sun rises daily and as the moon and the stars are set in place by Me to give light and direction, yeah, even in the night time, so also have I set My word and My Spirit to guide you and to be a light unto your path and a lamp unto your feet. I have ordered and ordained the whole universe, and I shall also order and ordain your life if you allow Me to do that. I shall be ever present in your life to guide you step by step, one step at a time. The next step, and the next, is in My hands and for Me to know and for you to trust Me with. Thus also have I brought you this far, and also onwards into the future will I lead you. So then, My child, have no fear or anxiety as to the next step. You shall know when and where and how you have to take it. Or else you shall be forced into taking it, much the way someone steps forward when slightly pushed and coached along from behind, or even pulled and helped along from the front.

301

My son, forever shall you be to Me a son, a loved one, My protégé, My joy, My special and carefully selected servant - and friend. I have always loved you, and I am the God of eternity who will always love you. Believe then not Satan's lies and deceit!

302

And why then do I tell you all these things, even again and again? As the angels cry "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord!" continually; even so do I reaffirm My favour towards you continually. You need it, and I need it. And it is fitting for you, My child, to offer up sacrifices of praise, continually - the fruit of your lips, giving thanks to My Name.

303

I so not forsake My children, child. I merely test them to see if they will trust Me and remain true to their calling.

304

My child, great has been your perseverance and faith in Me and in My promises and daily provision. Great, also, has been your faith in My power to heal and to keep you healthy. And your faith has proved not to be false or futile, time and time again. And neither shall you be ashamed of your faith in Me and My promises and My healing power in the future. Great shall be your joy and thanksgiving when you receive the fullness of My blessings to you and yours.

305

It is necessary for you to give thanks, even before you receive. This is well-pleasing to Me. Even the enemy knows this, and will do everything in his power to keep My children from praising and loving Me, even by keeping them in a continual state of condemnation, or fear, or self-rejection, or worry and anxiety; of distrusting Me to the extent that they can neither praise Me, nor truly love Me - because they do not have the faith in My love, My forgiveness, My promises, My faithfulness, My true Fatherhood in Jesus and through Jesus, who has done all in order for you to receive My favour both now and for evermore.

Therefore, My child, resist the devil, and give your thanks and your praise to Me continually, and always, and under all circumstances, and mostly even before I have given what I promised.

306

I love you. I seek your praise and thanksgiving and trust and reliance. And you have My favour towards you, both now and for evermore. Receive it, bask in it, My child. I will never take it back unless you reject it. Therefore, give earnest heed to My words that you may withstand the enemy in his wiles and attacks, trying to bring you to the point of distrust in Me, great enough to reject My favour towards you to turn your back on Me. In that is his victory. In your praise and thanksgiving based on hope and faith in Me and My promises and My sure favour towards you, is his defeat - through the perfect and completed work of Jesus, My Son.

307

My child, every time and in every circumstance in which you have need of mercy and grace from the throne of grace, I give mercy and grace when you ask for it. You need no money and you need no ability, and you need no opportunities as the world does. You need mercy and grace in time of need. Ask of Me and I will give. Inquire of Me and I will answer. Desire of Me and I will give you the best: Myself.

308

My child, insecurity has no place to be within you. Fear and anxiety has no place in your life. Anguish and worry do not befit you. You are Mine - wholly, completely. And therefore under My complete protection and care. I, the Lord, your Lord, have spoken.

309

My child, have I not told you to test Me, to prove Me in all things? Prove Me then in this, and trust Me completely in My ability to direct your steps in the way I have chosen for you. I will open and close doors for you. I will open and close doors you never knew were there. And I will sovereignly direct your way the way I want it to go. And because you want My way for you, it shall be a joy and not a concern to you, the way everything will develop. Prove Me in this, My child, and see that I am true to My word and to My promises.

310

My child, how I love you and yours. Even as a man loves his wife; as a father loves his children; as a friend loves his best friend; even so, but in all heavenly purity, is My love towards you. I love you for what and who you are, and not for what and how you have done or are doing anything. I love you for your faith and trust in Me, and not for all you have done for Me. And My loved ones shall never be forsaken by Me.

311

I have commanded and I have decreed and I have created the truth. I am truth, for all truth is from Me. And I have commanded that the rebellious shall not enter My holy place unless he forsakes his rebellion and be unto Me as clay in the Potter's hand. The Potter shall decide what shall become of the clay - man or woman, Greek or Jew, slave or free. If what I have decreed is accepted, it shall be unto freedom and glory. If what I have decreed is rejected, it shall be unto destruction. I am God and I change not. And I am not subject to any reasoning by man or woman.

{In the face of attacks by brethren}

My son, as always am I and remain I your Father and Friend. I am on your side, being for you in love and gentleness and longsuffering and joy. But I do not choose sides in any conflict. I am love. And I am the Almighty, All-knowing One. And therefore, the real question is: Who shall be on My side? Happy are you, and blessed, when they speak all manner of evil against you, blaspheming your name and casting you out because of Me and your obedience to Me.

Happy are you, and blessed, when they choose sides against you because you are on My side. Happy are you, and blessed, when they refuse to listen to the truth in favour of their own preferences, whilst accusing you of the lie, for thus have they also done to Me. Share in My suffering, My son, My daughter, and blessed are you.

Although I do understand all things, and although I see the work of the enemy behind every choice and action by man, I still demand the submission of man to Me before the works of the enemy can or shall be effectively resisted. And that is the choice every man has to make of his own free will. I love all of My creation, yet have I decreed that man shall choose for himself whom he shall serve - either himself, or Me. I will not make that choice for any man, even if I go to great lengths to assist him in making the choice.

I am far above all the petty differences and bickerings of man, My child. I am not involved in senseless arguments. I have set My standard, and I have decreed My will in every situation. Man has to seek My will and obey My commands.

This is man's choice. And he who seeks shall find. But he who does not want to find, shall also not seek where he knows the answer is to be found, but shall in fact attack and reject the messenger of My truth. It is man's choice to choose My will and do it; to accept My choosing and Godhood in their lives, or choose their own way, and to go about reasoning and bickering all around the truth in an effort to get rid of the truth.

I am always the same, My child. And I have always called My children sons of God. It is immaterial to Me, spiritually, whether someone is male or female. When someone is in Christ he is a new creature - where there is neither male nor female, but all is one in Christ. And therefore, the genders I use in addressing people is for the sake of man who hears, that he may understand. For man sees what is on the outside, but I see the heart.

Therefore, to man it is important to understand when I speak that I speak according to what is visible on the outside. But on the inside the term male or female has no significance.

316

My way for you is one of peace and prosperity in Me. But to the flesh it is a narrow way with no alternatives but crucifixion and death to all self-life and self-interest. Therefore, no compromise with the world can be tolerated on this way I have put you on. Remember, My child, that I am always there to guide you in My wisdom. Expect that from Me, and ask Me concerning your decisions in life. I love you.

317

Although all things are within My control, yet all things are not according to My will. By steadfastly trusting Me and seeking Me with joy in all circumstances, the work of the enemy is destroyed and does My work and will come to fruition. A tree needs time to grow; a flower needs time to bloom; a fruit needs time to ripen. But if the adverse circumstances that precede the fulfillment of My perfect will, be not met and sustained and overcome in faith and thanksgiving, then shall My perfect will not be accomplished.

318

My love for you is more than you can comprehend with your presently limited mind, emotions and experience. My love towards you is sufficient, yeah more than sufficient for anything that may happen in your life; for any need you may have; for any situation you may be in. My love is wider than the sea and deeper than the ocean; higher than the highest mountain and stronger than the strongest enemy you may have. I love you! Be then content with My ways with you, knowing that I love you and that I am the Almighty - the ALL Mighty! Mighty and Loving enough to stop you when you go wrong; Mighty and Loving enough to make known to you, when you are on the wrong road, at the wrong place, barking up the wrong tree; Mighty and Loving enough not to keep you in delusion that you are following My voice and way should you actually be following your own stubborn ideas - especially not, when you are trusting Me to keep you from delusion because of the unknown evil in man's heart. I AM Mighty and Loving enough to keep you on My way when that is your desire. I AM Mighty and Loving enough to be absolutely faithful to My word and all My promises to you.

319

My child, I have not forgotten about you. I love you. You are precious to Me. I shall not forsake you into the hands of the enemy or his world. I shall fulfill all your needs, because you are Mine. Have no fear, for I am with you to save you; to keep you forever; to protect you in the shadow of My wings of mercy and grace.

320

I have done all that is ever necessary for you to receive salvation and to be an overcomer - I have done all. The voice urging you on to do more and to be more, is not Mine. I have done all, and whatever you may yet lack, I will provide in its due time. And many things you think you lack, is no deficiency at all, but rather attributes I prefer. I have made you the way you are, and I am forming you the way I want you to be. Refrain then from criticizing yourself; and also refrain from trying to change yourself into what you think you ought to be. I am your Creator and Maker. And I love you the way you are now, and the way you shall be when I come to receive you unto Myself.

321

Walk then in this sanctified life, being holy, being betrothed to Me, your Lord and King; walking and talking in a way befitting your Beloved. Keep then your speech free from anxiety, from anger, from bitterness, from backbiting and slander, from greediness or distrust in My loving care and provision for all you need.

322

I am a holy God, and I am not to be confused with the various fabrications man creates, calling them god. I know all things, and I can do all things, and I can give all things. And you are Mine: holy, able and cared for in Me and through Me. Remember this always, and walk the holy life; the able life; the cared for life in Me and through Me by My Spirit
I have given you.

323

With Me being both your Father and your Friend, you have NOTHING to fear. So then, do not fear! I am with you and for you. And I love you dearly.
Trust Me then, and trust My Fatherhood and My friendship towards you, that I will never, never, ever abandon you, ignore you or leave you in the lurch. Wait for Me to come to your aid and to rescue you.

324

Blessed are all those who wait upon Me. Blessed are those who go out bearing precious seed for sowing, yeah, even weeping, for they shall doubtless come again bringing in the sheaves. Blessed are those who have set their hearts on Me, and on Me only. Blessed are those who have chosen Me above all else. Blessed are you, for you have made the right choice, choosing Me instead of the world, forsaking all else in favour of Me. Therefore will I lead you to clear waters and to the heights of My presence. Blessed are you, for all My words and promises that I have given you shall surely come to fulfillment. Blessed are you, for those who wait upon Me shall not be ashamed.

325

You ought not fear anything at all apart from Me. I am a jealous God, and you are Mine. I will not share you with the world, nor with any organization fabricated by man, even as the golden calf once was. You are Mine, now and for evermore. Fear not, for I have called you by name and I know you through and through. And I love you dearly.

326

I am for you and I shall never be late in assisting you - greatly! - and in rescuing you from every distress, from every pit you might have fallen into, from every need in times of need. I am with you, always and in everything. Fear not, but trust in Me. I love you, My child.

327

Remember that I have called you and have loved you from ever since and for evermore. Be then free in My presence, and be joyful in My love, rather than being bound in your own thoughts, anxieties and desires; and rather than being sad and disheartened in your own frustrations and doleful impressions of your own making, concerning your worthiness and value in My sight. You are worth to Me the price that I have paid for you to make you Mine.

328

Because you have put your trust in Me, shall the enemy be vanquished; and what he has meant for harm shall be turned into good.

329

Live by faith and not by experience. Live by faith, see by faith, act by faith, persevere by faith and you shall receive the crown of Life at the completion of your race.

330

Have no fear and have no trepidation in the road ahead, for I am with you to keep you, to care for you, to protect you and to guide you, because you are Mine.

331

I do not leave My chosen ones in the dark, lest it be for a season for their own good and maturation - but never, never because of lack of interest or involvement, let alone through reasons of anger or resentment on My part! My chosen ones are ever in My sight and in My mind and in My heart, and I care for them at all times in order to keep them from evil and in order to set them before My throne: pure and holy, without spot or blemish - in love!

332

My precious one, look not at what you see of yourself (all your inadequacies, weaknesses, sins or mistakes of the past or present), but set yourself before Me as one who is being loved by Me, and as one who loves Me. And then trust Me fully in this relationship we have, to be ever-faithful to you, as you shall be (because you want to be) to Me. What I see in you with heavenly eyes, and what you see of yourself with earthly eyes are so vastly different that they cannot even be compared. You need not become acceptable, you need not struggle to remain acceptable - you are accepted in the Beloved!

333

Precious child of Mine, why do you ask so few things from Me? Why do you not trust Me to a greater fashion and cast yourself and your reputation wholly onto Me?

334

Be of good courage and trust Me with all of life's questions and problems. Come to Me and I will make your burden light, and I will be your Wisdom and your Guide. I shall always be there when you come to Me to ask Me anything - that is My promise to you, My child. Apply My promises and live by them.

335

My child, My love and My being and My life and My fellowship and My relationship with you and My parenthood of you and My headship of My church, and of My church in your house and in your town is such that you need not, and should not become anxious or distressed about anything.

336

My child, I love you as I love My Son. Let My peace and the fullness of My parenthood descend upon you, and keep you in perfect peace. You are protected, you are provided for, you always have a Father to turn to for guidance and counsel.

337

Put your faith in Me in action and perform all things for Me. Forsake all negative scenarios in your thoughts, and take heart, for you are not alone. I have good plans for you, and My plans do not include for you to fail, but for you to succeed. However, you must take up your shield of faith, and wield My Word against the enemy's onslaught of discouragement and laziness. Take up My helmet of salvation and keep your thoughts covered and filled with the truth of My salvation and presence as a very present Help in trouble, and resist and empty your thoughts from the enemy's lies and discouragement and failure-driven self-rejection you so easily accept.

338

You have given your life and circumstances into My hands. Therefore, you have to trust Me completely with it. And that trust will be tested and tried by adversity. And especially when things do not seem to work out the way man would imagine them to, seeing you have put Me in control - then is the time to really trust Me that I AM.

339

I AM the LORD that healeth THEE! I shall not be untrue to Who I AM; neither shall I be untrue to you, My child, for I love you.

340

Shall a man seek gain for himself? Or shall My servants not rather cast themselves and their needs and their futures onto Me, Who am the Great Provider? Shall not I be the Source that they need, rather than Mammon and the ways of Mammon? Shall a man seek to be great and successful in this life of death and sin and selfishness, and shall not My servants rather seek to be great in the life to come - true life, and happiness and peace?

341

I have given you all that you have. And all that you have is Mine. I have undertaken to keep you and to care for you in all things, and for evermore. And I have become to you: Father, Saviour and Friend - yeah, Master of your life and circumstances. Then trust Me to the uttermost with all things that concern you; with all things that cause you concern; and do what is right in My eyes.

342

My child, precious to Me is the lives of those I love. And precious, even, to Me is the death of My faithful ones, for what is death else but entrance into LIFE? And what I have joy in, is to install life and peace and happiness, if you will allow Me to. Yes, to give you life in abundance and to destroy all the works of the devil in your life, that you may have true life, and that in abundance.

343

I have decreed many things which is too hard to be understood by the human mind and intellect. Even so have I decreed them for the good of My people. And if they would but learn to rejoice in all things, because all things do work to the good of those that love Me, then shall they have peace in the midst of the greatest turmoil and then shall they be overcomers in the greatest distress.

I am God, and I am able to control all things in your life even without making Me the author of temptation or evil - yet all those things still serve as part of My perfect plan for your life. And even your very own mistakes that you have made, have been known to Me from before the foundation of the earth, and have been incorporated into the plan for your life, which is a good plan - leaving you an eternal inheritance with the saints in the light - because I love you.

My child, as the sun shines every day, as it rises in the morning and sets at night, as the wind blows where and when and how it does and as it wants to blow, so also are My ways with you: never the same, but always there, and always to be counted upon and to be waited upon. As you would wait for the morning sun to appear, and be certain that it will, even so may you wait upon Me to shine upon you and be certain that I will. And as the sun sets at night even though it never stops shining, even so, when it seems as if I have stopped shining upon you, I never really did. And as day follows night, My truth and My righteousness, and My promises of deliverance and joy never really cease at all, but will come to light and fulfillment like the breaking of dawn in its right time. Wait for it with the same certainty with which you know every morning that the sun will shine.

And as the wind blows where it wills and cannot be commanded to do man's bidding, so shall My Holy Spirit blow where and how it wants and desires. But that it will blow in due course is certain. And that the sails can be set to the wind whether it blows from the east or from the west, is also certain. And regardless from where that wind blows, by setting the sails by faith and in joy and thanksgiving, can and should the direction of the boat of life be maintained in such a way that the destination be reached in the minimum of time.

Yeah, set your sails such that no matter how the wind blows, or from which direction, whether from behind or whether from the front, that your direction and destination remain towards Myself and the fulfillment of all My promises to you (none of which is to be found apart from Me, because I love you).

And so then, even if the wind is against you, seemingly; it really is not against you, but merely comes from up ahead. And by setting your sails to it anyway, progress can be made, and should be made towards Me - and that sometimes even more speedily than if it should be from behind.

Remember that I love you, and that I am in command of the wind and the waves. And I shall keep you and care for you at all times and under all circumstances. And all shall be to the good of those who love Me; of those I love.

Peace to you, My child!

345

What is required is a quality decision which is then adhered to throughout life, to serve Me and to worship Me as God and Father all your days. And that includes to lay down your own control over your lives - for nobody can serve and worship Me and yet cling to his/her own desires and whims - "for the flesh is at enmity with God".

346

I know all your circumstances and all of your frustrations. And I know all of your inadequacies and strengths - and that the latter is the greater evil. I want to be all your strength and ability. And I want to be in complete control, not only of your life, but also of your circumstances. Leave then be, all circumstances and conditions around you, and become weak and dependant as a little child and I shall receive you and nourish and cherish you in great tenderness; and I shall be all of your strength, because I love you.

347

My child, as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and give life on earth, so does My word give life to those who receive it into their hearts and minds to do and to live accordingly.

348

My child, I do understand and accept your great hunger to see Me work in the supernatural in your midst and in your life. But what is much more important for you, is that you be sheltered and secure in My love and kindness, and in the knowledge of My Fatherhood and presence and involvement in everything in your life. You are never alone, and you are never left to yourself and your own ability and designs as long as you remain in Me from your side.

349

Be at peace then, in all circumstances and at all times - sheltered in Me who IS the Almighty, who loves you, My child, and who loves yours, My own.

350

My child, the sun and the moon have been set in orbit by Me, and perform that function that I have ordained for each one separately. And even so have I ordained your life, circumstances and purposes. And many of those are, and shall be, a mystery to you during your life here on earth. But one day you will know. Keep faith then, and persevere in the knowledge of My Fatherhood and joy in you.

351

Have then no concern concerning the way your life develops, neither where you stay, or what you eat, or when you should do what. Let Me work out all these things according to My plan and foreknowledge - remembering that I love you. And thus, then, have peace in the way I work out your life for you, and flow with Me in love and faith - rejoicing, and enjoying what comes your way, knowing that it is from Me.

352

Be surprised, be amazed and be ever joyful in My presence and press in to the point of awareness of My nearness at all times and under all circumstances. I love you!

353

I love you, My child! I have promised you years ago to not stop telling you this simple but profound truth until it becomes a complete part of your being, of your thought process, of your life - the driving force and joy of all your actions and reactions.

354

I have become to you and yours: Father and Friend. I shall provide all you need, because I want to and I can. Let Me, by doing nothing but trusting Me. And I shall make known to you whenever you need to do anything at all. However, trusting Me is and should be your main occupation. Dedicate yourself to trusting Me in all things, under any circumstances, and you shall discover time and time again that I am trustworthy. I love you.

355

My child, you gave yourself to Me and I have made you Mine, never again to be anything but Mine. Remember that. Yes, I am coming to fetch you and yours to be with Me where I am and you ought to be wide awake and awaiting My return which is at hand. I love you, and desire to take you into My presence and close to My person. I also desire for you to be equipped and sent forth with the true message of My Kingdom on your lips and in your hearts and minds: to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to announce the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of the wrath of God over all wickedness and evil.

356

My child, I have not left you, nor left you in the lurch. My plans are higher than yours, and My ways than your ways. I know your heart and I know your ways, and I understand what you do and what you have done and why and why not. And My Fatherhood and grace and favour towards you remain intact and shall never waver. Wait and see the salvation of your God! What I take away, I always recompense a hundredfold; and what Satan takes away, I will extract from out of his hands and give it back to My beloved in a manifold fashion.

357

My child, My plans for you are far greater than a farm or a successful business. My calling for you is higher than this earth and its ways and interests. My destiny for you and yours is way above the heavens. What you seem to have lost, shall turn out as gain; even as what Satan had seemed to gain by nailing the Son of Man to the cross, has turned out as his greatest defeat. So do not lose heart in the least, but wait and see the salvation of your God - the salvation I work out for you; and not the salvation you work out for Me. I love you.

358

I am God and there is none other. And I am faithful to My own; I will never be other than that. And the first thing necessary for you is to live and act in accordance with My faithfulness and Godhood. I will always provide; I will always care; I will never forget or be negligent concerning My own whom I have accepted as being under My care and protection. I will never be either helpless or distant concerning those I love and concerning those who have entrusted their lives to Me. And so then, will I meet your every need, and will I care and provide for your children. Trust Me recklessly, and do not fear, for I am with you and for you in love. Peace to you.

359

For as the sun rises day by day, and as the moon gives its light in the dark of night, so do I shine upon you in an eternal covenant of peace and joy, and so will I always give you light in your darkness and sometimes despair. Be not afraid and do not lose heart when the light of My countenance seems to have disappeared and the dark closes in, for My covenant of peace and mercy and care over you and yours remains as firm and as steadfast as the daily rising of the sun. And My ever-guiding hand shall light your way even in a dark place. Because I love you, and My love does not depend on your feelings or on your own estimation of your worthiness to receive My love. Nothing can separate you from My love - ever.

360

My child, the sun rises on the poor and on the rich; on the needy as well as on the rich; on the wicked as well as on the righteous; on the evil as well as on the good. But the time always comes, and will presently come for all, that My grace and mercy over the wicked comes to an end, and when I will repay the poor and recompense those who have been robbed by the rich; when I will repay into their bosom every wrong deed that has been committed against them, and when I will exact justice from those who have wronged them; when the wicked shall no longer be recipients of My mercy nor of My grace, but when the poor and the just shall be recompensed for all they have suffered at the hand of the wicked and arrogant. I am for those who seek Me and who trust in Me and who plead their cause with Me - to save them and to set them on high.

361

My ways may not be man's way when measured against laws and regulations and religious piety. The God of Life has often applied death in order for life to come forth. Yea, and even as winter has to precede summer, and night comes before the day; so does My way with man in many ways seemingly contradict the very purpose for which it is designed and destined.

362

My attitude towards you is one of love and understanding, and not of revenge and anger and reproach. My attitude and character is not to be seeking what is evil and of disrepute, but to be seeking what is good and noble and of good report.

363

My victory over every work of the devil has been proclaimed over your life. And I shall keep you and guide you in My victory, using whatever means I desire to use. And I shall keep you safe, and preserve you for My heavenly kingdom, for thus have I chosen to do.

364

Have no fear and allow no fear or trepidation to get any foothold in your life. Cast out any and every thought of fear or anxiety the moment it is conceived, for I am with you! I love you.

365

My child, it will always be only in love and loyalty that I shall deal with you and yours. My shield of protection and care has been spread over you and no power on earth nor in heaven is strong enough to remove that. Peace to you, My beloved.

366

My child, I open doors and I close doors. And I am the God of eternity. And therefore are My ways totally different from yours, because I see in the eternal whilst you see in the natural. And so then, when My ways with you seem to take many detours and seem to linger on without getting anywhere, it is because you look with the eyes of the flesh and understand with a mind based on the present and the fleeting, rather than on the eternal and the truth.

367

Flow with Me in obedience and trust, and accept then My ways and times, forcing nothing your way. I love you.

368

My child, as the sun shines and gives its light and its warmth to the earth, so do I shine over you and yours, to give you My life and My peace and protection. When I AM for you, and when My favour shines upon you, you have nothing to fear, and your task reduces to basking in My life and love. And so then, be at perfect peace in the knowledge, the sure knowledge of My presence with you and upon you.

369

I will see to it that My beloved be cared for and protected from all evil. Yet I will also see to it that My beloved be tested and tried and purified and consecrated to My service - that all things that hinders and impedes, and that is foreign to My perfect creation and plan in the lives of My beloved, be removed by whatever means I might find to use.

370

This illness, My child, is not unto death, but unto life in Me. It is an attack by the enemy, but it is a victory unto Me. And you are not delivered into the enemy's hand for destruction, but you are in My hand for healing - healing not only in the physical, but especially in the inner man - preparing you for the Day of My coming, that you shall be an object of great glory in My Kingdom for Me! I love you!

371

My child, assuredly have I said and made known to you My plan of salvation, which is to persevere until the end - trusting Me, loving Me, obeying Me, doing the things I tell you to do, living in humility and self-denial all the days of your lives, and then be taken up into My glory and presence in kingly majesty and splendour.

372

My child, against all odds, and against all opposition of man and demon, have I brought you thus far and have I led you and yours through valleys and over mountains and deserts to where you are now. And I have provided for and cared for and loved you. And I do not change! I still love you, and I still provide for you and I still care for you - and I shall! - until the end of time. Then do not forsake your position of faith and trust and love in Me. Cling to Me, My child, in full assurance of faith! I will never leave you nor forsake you. Leave all your cares and problems in My hands and trust Me with them, having an inner calmness and serenity, knowing that I not only am able, but also present and active and eager to take all your burdens and to deal with them the way I know to be best. I love you.

373

Wait upon the Lord. Expect Him to act.

374

Yes, you do not understand now, but later on you will. I love you! Let that be your major emphasis and point of interest, rather than understanding everything. I AM in control of your life. Let that be your consolation, rather than doubting your own actions in putting Me in full control of your life and circumstances. I have led you out to lead you into the promised land - I shall fulfill all My promises, with great joy for Me and for you.

375

My child, look around you and see My grace I have bestowed upon you, and am bestowing upon you in measureless fashion. Yeah, even where you might think that My grace is or was insufficient, you will soon see with astonishment that it was in My grace - boundless grace - that I have apparently withheld My grace from you. I really love you.

376

Know then that I, even I, have called you and consecrated you as My very own - to walk with Me and to be with Me into all eternity.

Look then up, not down; look then to Me and not to yourself; look then out and not in; look then forward and not backward. And know that I am able to keep those who are Mine and put their trust in Me. I really love you, My child.

377

Cast yourself upon Me and I will accept you just as you are. For to Me you are precious and highly favoured. Only do not reject My love and My grace through pride or bitterness; through looking at the faults and deceit of man, and accounting that to Me; through seeking and finding that hidden flaw time and time again, and accounting that to Me; through accepting the lie that if those who confess Me as their Lord and Master prove to be phony, then I am also!
Man might be unfaithful, but I never am!

Seek Me then, and live. But do not seek Me in order to get. Seek Me in order to give, for I have already given. Seek Me in order to love, for I have loved you first. Seek Me in trust and faithfulness, for I am trustworthy and faithful to you! And if you are willing to commit the seed of your life to the ground of My love for you, and allow it to die to all its own prescriptions and designs and bitterness and sin, and are willing to apparently receive nothing in return, then shall My life in you come forth and bear much fruit.

379

Thus I say to you, My child: I, your LORD and your Master and your Friend and your Father and your God and your Coming King have NOT forgotten you, but you are ever in My sight with compassion and care - even as a father loves his only child. Can I ever forget you? Can I ever stop loving you? Can I ever not care? Can you who are bad not love and care for your child? How then would I? I LOVE YOU!

380

My child, precious one and highly regarded in My sight: Have no fear, for I am with you, always. And you have no need to ever prove anything to Me; to ever deserve anything that I give you; to ever understand anything of My grace or the reasons therefore. Only receive what I give! Receive My grace and My love for you; receive My goodness and My favour towards you; receive My ability and wisdom as available and functioning in your life whenever you trust Me for that. And because these are already yours, expect these things to be: expect good things from Me; expect Me to never change, for I never will; expect to not understand these things, but to simply receive them day by day by faith. And have your joy in Me, for I love you and have My joy in you.

As to all the intricacies of your life and relationships: the wise thing for you to do, would be to accept your own inadequacy to deal with them and to operate on them. But then also to accept and receive My ability to deal with them and to cause them to develop absolutely correctly according to My plan and purposes for your life - which is a good plan and purpose. And so then, instead of troubling yourself over them, and instead of feeling threatened and forlorn in your situation, leave these things to Me and begin to enjoy the development you observe - a development which shall be according to My plan and purpose.

Enjoy sitting in the passenger seat of your life and seeing Me navigating this unknown road of your life. Enjoy being out of control and knowing that I am in control. Enjoy your dependency on Me, knowing that I love you. And enjoy your childhood, knowing you have a Father Who knows and cares and is ever with you.

Thoughts of despair or fear or loneliness are thoughts that need to be taken captive and expelled, because they are not in line with My control and love towards you. Learn then also this lesson: to take control of your thoughts and to expel every thought that does not glorify Me and which is not in submission to My Lordship in your life; and to receive, in faith, My peace in their stead. Let such thoughts not develop and grow and be nurtured. Deal ruthlessly with them, for they are from the enemy, and you belong to Me! I love you, My child - for ever!

My children, have I not told you so many times in the past that I am the one Who has called you to be Mine, and therefore I shall also be the One Who will carry you and guide you and sustain you? What God would I be if I would call My children into the desert and not lead them through; if I would call them away from the flesh pots of Egypt, but then give them nothing in its stead; if I would call them into Canaan and then not lead them in and let them inherit My promises?

I AM the faithful God Who will always be true to My character and to My promises. I am not like men who change day by day, and on whose loyalty and trust cannot be reckoned. I am not like men who say one thing, but do another.

I am not like men who are forever touchy and easy to be contentiously pulled into positions of distrust, misunderstanding and being affronted. I am forever the same, forever to be trusted, forever understanding everything; ready to forgive, ready to heal, ready to help whenever I am called upon to do that.

And being Who I am and how I am, you must reckon Me to be all I am and all I have undertaken to be unto you: your Guiding Light; your Support and Destiny; your Father and Friend; your Purpose in Life; your Beginning and End; your Source and Supply; your Master and Lord. And I shall never ever forsake you or leave you in the lurch in these things.

What I want, then, from you is to simply trust Me to actually be all of these to you. And then, and thus, to live day by day expecting Me to be these things to you - without doubting, without fearing - remembering that I love you.

And be willing to lay aside all your own plans and purposes, yeah, all your own likes, dislikes, 'needs' and desires, insisting on nothing, but rather standing in faith and in utter dependency on Me; observing the way in which your lives develop; accepting My ways for you; having peace in My provision of time, place, quality and quantity; being willing to go wherever I lead, even if that seems to be nowhere; and loving Me in all of these, knowing that I love you. And great shall be your reward.

Do not lose heart, then, but complete the road I have given you to travel. At the end of it lies the promised land of My blessings in abundance; of My presence in person; of My joy with no limit or end. I encourage you and call on you to keep going, My children, right to the end where you will receive the prize of My high calling in Christ Jesus.

I love you!

My child, despite all you see and don't see, I am with you and for you, and I still love you. But be still and know that I am God! And I change not! What I have said, that will I do, and what I have promised, that will I make good. Wait for Me, and keep on waiting for Me. Have I ever yet been unfaithful? Will I then ever be unfaithful? Wait for Me with perseverance and trust and you also shall see that I am faithful and true - and that I do love you!

385

My child, in Jesus have you become My very own. Flesh of My flesh and bone of My bone. And remember that nothing will ever change this. You are Mine and I am yours; and My loyalty towards you and to your cause is absolute and as firm and steady as I am. Remember that! And even when you forget - it shall still be as sure and steadfast as ever. I love you dearly!

386

Oh, My child, have I ever in the past forsaken you or left you in the lurch? Why then, are you afraid now? Shall I ever, ever be untrue to My nature? Seek Me, and live! I AM sufficient for all your needs, for all your desires, for all your fears and anxieties. I AM God, the Almighty, on your side, at your side, to fight for you and to be to you a true Friend in need. I shall NOT leave you, nor forsake you, regardless of what you do or do not do. But for the sake of your peace of mind and heart, it is necessary for you to stay with Me, and to keep your eyes fixed on Me and to forsake all laziness and discouragement and distrust, and to keep on pressing into Me, knowing and accepting by faith that I do love you and that I do receive and cherish your company and our togetherness. I love you!

387

Be not confused and waylaid by your circumstances which are strictly and purely temporary, but be encouraged and edified by the truth of My love and acceptance and care and protection, which are eternal. Your circumstances will come and go, ebb and flow like waves of the sea, for as long as you are here on earth in your present body. But My truth and being and presence and love shall stand as a rock throughout all that time. You may flow back and forth with the waves, or you may cling to the rock. Do the latter with all your might and heart and soul and I shall lift you very, very high in its due time.

388

Fear not. Fear nothing! If you are with Me in any situation, then nothing can harm you. The enemy and his forces fear you. Do not fear them. But cling to Me and never take them on in your own strength or standing.

389

I have given you many and precious promises. And I will make every one of them good. Remember then those promises. Bring them to mind and discipline yourself to keep them in mind. And live by them - trusting Me and waiting upon Me.

390

My child, always and forever shall I be on your side and at your side. Never, not even for a moment, will I ever leave you or not be with you or for you. Unless you accept this by faith, and accept My goodwill and love towards you (not because you feel it or see it with your eyes, but because you see it and accept it by faith alone) you shall not have peace and security in My Fatherhood and protection and care and guidance.

391

Unless you trust My ways with you and associate gladly with the humble without rejecting or despising yourself, or considering yourself a failure or even expecting failure, you shall not find peace and security and joy in Me. These you have to do, and the results of feeling and seeing shall follow at its right time.

392

My child, already have I heard your prayer and your cry for help - even before you have uttered it with your mouth and heart. And I know all of your needs, and all of your fears, and all of your weaknesses. And I care. I do not judge and condemn, because I have made you Mine, and have set you in the place of righteousness, covered in My blood, clad with the robe of righteousness, having been made accepted in the Beloved. You are Mine, and that forever. I will never cast you aside. And I will never forget about you, and I will never neglect you or shun you. I love you. Keep pressing in to Me, with whatever little strength you may have, and expect Me to help you and to want you next to Me. Expect Me to act on your behalf. And accept My ways and My times for you. Only never lose hope, for I am true to My word and all My promises to You I will fulfill. I AM and remain your Father!

393

Remember, My child, that I am in total control of your life, and that I am working it all out in accordance with My perfect and good plan which has eternal foundations and purposes.
Be content with My ways for you, and know that it is My way for you every time you may end up in an unpleasant situation (and in a pleasant situation). I have never forsaken you, and I never will.

I have known about your plight and need even before the creation of the world, My child. And even before the creation of the world have I already reached out and planned and executed your release out of your present prison.
Your times are in My hands, My child. And I am on your side to save you with a mighty hand.
Your course is set, and Mine is set to be with you forever more. My child, I have destined you for great, great things. And I have destined you to go through your present valley for purposes I know why. I have been your help even before you entered the valley, and I am your help both now and forever more. Have no fear!

395

I love you and you have chosen to love Me and to dedicate your life to Me. Remain then dedicated to Me only. And stand fast in the knowledge of My love and Fatherhood and Ownership, Lordship of your life - being able and loving enough to guide you and protect you from all evil, and to provide for you in all your needs at all times and under any circumstances. I love you, and you love Me. That is enough. Human opinion and control will add nothing but confusion and bonds and strife. I give you peace and joy and love and freedom.

396

I love you with all My life - forever. So easily does the enemy convince you that I do not. And yet I allow this test of faith in My word and promises and character - for you to choose which you will believe - Satan's lies, which are easy to believe, or My truth, which is not easy to believe, because My truth is like Me - unseen, spiritual, real in a realm which is higher than your present reality.
As a little gold is found in much earth; as a little diamond is found in a heap of rubble; so is My truth - not easy to find compared to the false realities of this world, yet it is the only thing worthwhile to find.

{God's answer after a plea for deliverance from great distress}

My son, be to Me simply the son that you are! I do not put pressure on you to perform, or to be something special, or to do something special. I simply love you. I see and know all things, and there is nothing that I cannot do and will not do for those who love Me. I know your need, son, and I know your distress. I can do something about it, and I will!* Stop worrying! I have all things in hand, and I am controlling events even though it may not seem to you as if I am. Trust Me then simply as your Father; and be to Me simply the son that I love. And let Me work out your life and circumstances and appointments and actions. Yes, I am indeed training you and equipping you and preparing you for a high and a heavenly calling. Simply accept My training methods and the pain and distress it brings. It is necessary in this life of yours to be taught through pain and distress. There is no other way. So accept it with joy, even though not with enjoyment. Trust Me. I do love you. And I am working out all the details of your life and circumstances.

\{And He did - and is still doing it! Praise His wonderful Name!}*

You certainly have gone through a very difficult testing and training period, My child. But training never lasts forever, and training is meant to equip for a coming task. Your life has a purpose which you have not even entered yet, apart from training for it. I have selected you as My own. I have done the choosing. Only as a result of that could you ever have chosen Me. So have peace in the knowledge that what I have begun, I have begun with the object and purpose of finishing what I have begun. I have begun a good work in you, My child, so allow Me to also finish it by persevering no matter what the circumstances may be or may become.

{Concerning an unfaithful husband}

Your husband is not the object or purpose of your life - I am! And to win him back or to lead him to Me is also not the object or purpose of your life - I am; and to keep on trusting Me and obeying Me fully! Victory will not be when he is loyal to you in every circumstance, but it will be when you are loyal to Me in every circumstance. The marriage between you and him is not the most important one - the one between you and Me is! Set your priorities in order and have your peace and joy and the purposes of your life in Me, and the rest will sort itself out, because I will take over control where you let it go.

400

Do not play around with sin or compromise in your life. If you desire total loyalty from your spouse, I desire the same from you. So have nothing to do with known sin. Bring it to the cross the moment you become aware of it and let the blood of Jesus deal with it, and go and sin no more.

401

My child, in perfect peace will I keep those who are Mine; and in perfect peace ought they abide. It does require a choice of will from their side. You then, make that choice daily and in all cases, knowing that I love you and that I will always keep My side of the covenant which does exist between us. I love you. Be at perfect peace in My presence and in My loving care and Fatherhood. I shall always be to you a Guide and a Friend and a Champion that fights your cause.

402

Behold, My child, how I have blessed you and am blessing you, and truly rejoice with gladness because I, the Almighty, AM on your side, loving and cherishing you. Prescribe nothing to Me, My child, but enjoy everything I do because I can arrange everything in your life according to My plans and purposes for you, and I will as long as you ask that from Me and trust Me for that. And rejoicing is the manifestation of your faith in both My ability and attitude of love towards you. I love you.

403

My child, precious and beloved, do not compare yourself to others; neither compare your 'gifts' and methods to that of others. Be to Me what and how you are and I will make you a pillar in My Kingdom. Remember that I have made you what and how you are. And also remember that I am the Giver of all good gifts. And do not equate My giving with My love and with My attitude of grace and care. I often 'give' less to those I love more. Rather be satisfied - completely satisfied - with what I give and with what I don't give, and enjoy My fellowship and love and Fatherhood.

404

Precious child of Mine, do not lose heart in expecting and hoping for my promises to come true. My promises are as certain as I am certain; and My purposes and plans which I have made known to you shall certainly come to pass in their due time. I love you.

405

Forever am I the same, I change not, and neither do My attitude of favour and My knowledge of you as My very own child change. Rest assured in this and have peace in My ways with you. I love you.

406

My child, do you doubt My love for you? Do you fail to see My hand in all things in your life? Do you not recognize that it is I Who have taken you by the hand and led you throughout your life on earth, and brought you to where you find yourself now? Do you not see that I favour you and that I have showered you with My favours? And am still doing so? Open your eyes and see these things; recognize them, embrace them and live in and by them. I love you.

407

My child, forever will you be Mine! Because I have chosen you, will I not cast you aside. And even though you do not understand My ways with you, yet are you Mine and Mine alone; and have I not forgotten about you; and have I not forgotten a single plan, purpose, promise that I have made concerning you. I shall see to it that they all come to pass in their due time. For I AM your God, the only true God and Father and Creator and Friend and Saviour and LORD and Master and Christ, the Almighty, saying to you: My child, be at peace and receive My love and promises to you - I shall be true to My word and character. I love you.

408

My child, I love you - I do! Even though you feel neglected and rejected, even. Will you trust Me and receive My many words of assurances to you as true and faithful? And base your faith and thoughts and actions on those rather than on the turmoil and fear of your mind and the discontent of you flesh? Do not evaluate Me and My actions with you on the basis of human intellect or desires, but base it on faith only. My ways and actions will never make sense to you, logically. But if and when you are willing to base your life on My word in faith, and rejoice in gratitude, rather than moan in fear or frustration, will it certainly make sense and will the reality of My presence and involvement in your life crystallize into focus, and will you be truly aware of My presence and involvement in your life and circumstances and ministry. I love you.

409

My child, to you have I extended all My love and favour, never to retract it again. Let Me then sort out your life and circumstances, and let Me then live your life, by your being completely and utterly submitted and dependant on Me. In that manner, wait upon Me in all things and at all times. And remember, My word is truth and My favour is for life. I will prove Myself and My word to you over and over in the coming days. Fear nothing and rejoice in My love. I love you.

410

My child, I will never forget you or about you and yours. You are ever before Me in love - the utter and complete love that I have for you. Be free in this knowledge and walk in My peace and in the serenity of acceptance by the All-knowing, All-mighty, Ever-present God.

411

My child, forever will I be true to My being and My character and My word and My promises made to My loved ones - even you also. I shall perform all My good purpose with and in and through you, and I shall answer all your prayers, because I hear them. I hear your heart's cry, and I am not inattentive concerning it.

412

My child, with the very same attitude of love and understanding, of tender loving care, of gentle persuasion, of absolute authority (but that of a loving, caring Father, that of the LORD who gave His own life to save you) - with this very same character and attitude, and in this very same relationship will I meet you and greet you when you come to Me in glory once your race on earth is run. I love you, and I change not. Build then your relationship with Me. Grow in intimacy. Be filled and saturated with My being, and My love and care towards you, with My omnipotence and My gentleness and Fatherhood.

413

Speedily will I rescue you and will I be there as your Saviour, whenever you are in need. At the right moment will I save, will I meet your need, will I answer your prayer. Do not lose heart, for I love you forever. You are My child, and I, the Almighty, AM your Father. Focus on this, believe this, live in this knowledge.

414

My child, I have chosen you to care for you and to have you as My own, in My very presence, forever. Rejoice when you think on this, and allow this truth to pervade your being and to fill your heart and mind. I love you!

415

My child, see that I am the One who protects you and keeps you day by day and in and through every trial and tribulation. Expect Me to act on and in your behalf on every occasion, and expect My grace and mercy and lovingkindness to be active and effective towards you at every turn and in every situation. And thus and then shall it always be! I love you, My child.

416

My child, I AM for you, and therefore do you have nothing to fear. Wait patiently and in full faith on Me, for My perfect times and seasons for all things in your life. I love you and I care greatly for you. Shalom.

417

My dear child, it is not important to Me how you feel, or what you manage to do, or whether you meet your own expectations of how well you should serve Me. I love you regardless of your worth or apparent ability. I love you because you are Mine. I love you because I have bought you at a dear price. I love you because you're you. I love you endlessly, and I will never ever forsake you or leave you in the lurch or forget about you. Neither will I forget about those who are dear to you. What kind of friend or father would do such a thing? Be at peace in My presence, My child. I AM with you!

418

My child, I AM in control. Nothing has gone wrong. Nothing shall go wrong, providing you leave Me in control. Do not fret yourself. Do not become agitated and fearful. I will provide - both funds and opportunities, and protection and care.

419

My child, the future of your country is in My hand and not in the hands of the wicked and the selfish. Their time is but for the moment. Do not become despondent because of their doing. They are not worth that sentiment in My children. Rather be positive and joyful in My presence, knowing that what I do is eternal. And I, even I, shall determine the future, even though I do allow a short time for the wicked to rule. Nothing that the wicked do shall last, and no damage that they might cause shall remain. I, even I, shall restore all things when the time for that is come. Therefore, let yourself be joyful and full of hope. Grasp the moment and live in My presence. I will provide all you ever need. I love you!

420

Be careful to maintain your peace in Me by always remembering and always trusting in Me as your Father and Friend and Provider and Guide and Master. Just trust Me, My child, and enjoy My fellowship. Your future shall not be determined by the level or value of your efforts, but by the level and value of your trust in Me. And that trust, My child, is continually being tested and tried. But have no fear, I am with you.

421

My Child, you and yours are ever in My sight and in My mind, and I love and care for you. Expect great things and not small things; confess great things and good things and not bad; trust Me for abundance and do not expect or plead poverty! I AM the God of plenty! And no sickness shall ever be able to stand against My love and power!

422

I love the small and the meek and the honest! I love those who really know that their ability and all that they are or are not, is from Me, for without Me you can do nothing.

423

My child, if I should seek technical points in order to find fault in what My children do, what kind of a Father would I be? I look at the heart and not at the technicality of the execution. And I look at obedience flowing from an honest heart, rather than knowledge or the lack thereof that either leads to, or stems from an arrogant mind. Give Me your heart and give Me your trust and I will guide you into all truth. But if your heart is not with Me, but with your own interests and plans and purposes, your obedience and your trust shall also be lacking, and you will do the wrong thing because you will not seek neither find the truth.

424

My child, I love you. Understand this! I have chosen you because I have loved you. And I have loved you because I have chosen you. And I do not change. I love you still and I will love you in eternity. Be quiet before Me and accept My ways for you! But know assuredly that I will never forsake you and yours! I will assuredly carry you through in all and in any circumstances. I will always BE there for you and yours in all aspects of life. Live without fear and trepidation. I AM your Rock!

425

My child, I AM the Living God. And I can do all things. I want you to trust Me, no matter what. I will never leave you in the lurch, and I will never forsake you. Stay with Me, no matter what, and trust Me. You need not understand all things. You need not understand anything at all apart from this one thing: I AM the Living God and I love you. Never doubt this great truth, My child, no matter what happens. You need not understand, you need to trust. I AM with you and I AM for you. I AM good, and I have your best interests at heart. Let Me have My way with you! - and the end-result shall be glorious.

2007.05.26 - Interpretation of tongues

Behold My children, yeah I have become a Father unto you and I have fore-ordained you from before the foundation of the world - even then I have known your name, each one of you, even then I have known the paths your lives would take. My children, you cannot comprehend these things, not yet, but wait and you shall, because I will lift you to heights never known before, I will lift you to walk with Me on the holy mountain, I fore-ordained each one of you to be Mine into all eternity, and I shall equip you to be like Me and to understand things like Me. Then you shall understand that it is easy to know the future in advance, then you shall understand how I loved you from the start, having known all your life. Know then, and know assuredly, that each one of you is well-known by Me, has been from ever since and shall be for evermore. Know that you are cared for by the Almighty. Know that you are never alone. Know that you need not fight life's problems, you need simply trust Me. You need to be reckless enough to let your own understanding go and to trust Mine instead. You need to really trust and love Me. So bow before My ways, accept My ways for you and do not accept the lie from the enemy that My way for you is born out of hate or out of neglect, for it IS born out of love. Once you understand My love is endless and will never stop and will never be separated from you, then you can understand that even though you don't understand what I'm doing you can understand that it is done in love. Then you can trust Me and then the victory shall be assured. My children, I say again unto you, I love you, each one of you. I know your names, each one of you. You are precious to Me, every one of you. Just love Me in total trust, abandoning your own understanding, clinging to Me like a small child does to his father. I have great plans for you which I am about to put into effect. So take this step of total trust so that I might attain the fullness of My plans and purposes in your life. Thus says God, your Father.

My child, I have not forgotten you, I have not forgotten about you. I know the totality of the circumstances you are in and there is nothing that can happen with you or to you or through you that I cannot arrange to the minutest detail. I am not the author of bad things, for I am a good God. Everything I do is good and one day soon you shall look back on your life and see it, but now you cannot understand it. You are not even supposed to understand. What I desire from you, My child, is faith - incomprehensible to the mind, madness to the world - but utter reckless faith in your loving God, your loving Father, your loving Master and Friend. So My child, know that I have not forgotten about you and I never, ever shall. Every circumstance in your life will I use, will I apply to My glory, but it shall be unto you an eternal gain and joy. Very soon you shall jump for joy and you shall thank Me continuously for every hard thing I've allowed in your life. Yes, My child, what I want from you is to even now rejoice, also for the hard things in your life. Do not try to understand, just love Me and know that I have not forgotten about you. Know that I am involved in your circumstances. Know that I am the author of good things, not bad things. I shall carry you through and I shall not allow any test to be above what you are able to do. I love you, My child, and I am with you always as your Almighty Friend. Peace to you.

2007.12.29 - Interpretation of tongues

My children, I am the God of eternity, I am the beginning of all things. I am the One Who has known you before you were born. I have known all things about you, also those things that are yet to happen. And I am your Lord Who declares unto you that I love you. Having known all about you have I given My life to set you free. You are the joy that was set before Me when I endured the cross. I never ask from you to be worthy of Me, but I do ask of you to love Me. I never ask from you to be special and perfect, I do ask from you to be faithful unto Me - always. I never ask from you to know all things, you may even know very little. What I do ask from you is to learn to know Me, to learn to know My character, to study My Word, to spend time with one another to learn Me, to know Me. And then you shall never insult Me by attributing things to Me that I will never do. I will always be true to My Word. I will always be true to you, because I love you. I will never play games with you, because I love you. I will never say one thing and do another. Learn then to trust Me fully in My love for you, learn to trust Me fully in My faithfulness towards you. And you be faithful unto Me and don't forget I am your Lord and your Master, but not only that - I am your Friend, I am your Bridegroom Who is coming very soon to fetch you. And therefore I say again I ask from you these three things: love Me, be faithful unto Me and learn to know Who I am. And then you shall be able to stand against the wiles of the devil and then you shall complete your journey on earth successfully and then you shall be ready when I come to fetch you, says the Lord.

2008.01.12 - Prophetic Word

I will never leave you, says the Lord. I will never forget about you. I will not forsake you. Listen not to the voice of your enemy, because he is a liar from the beginning, he is the father of lies. He will always try to put doubt in your mind. He will always try to portray Me as being unfaithful, unloving, uncaring, even hateful. No, My child! No, My child, I am your ever caring, ever loving Father, Saviour and Friend. I know about everything concerning you. If it seems to you as if I do not do a thing, that is what Satan would want you to believe. Remember that I work in mysterious ways. Remember that I often work in darkness and where you cannot see. In winter time the tree spreads its roots under the ground where you don't see it, but without that happening there will never be any fruit on that tree. Trust Me in My ways with you. Trust Me in the way that I lovingly care for you. Trust Me with every difficult thing that I allow in your path. It doesn't merely happen - because I am God it happens by design. Never feel yourself, never feel yourself forsaken by Me, because I have promised that I will never forsake you. So take hold of this and cling to this truth no matter what. Rather believe what I tell you than to believe the silly voice in your own mind telling you otherwise. Rather believe the truth that I've given you than to believe the reasonings of your own mind which is very puny indeed. My ways are so much higher than your ways. And even so, My child, My love for you is so much higher than you can ever imagine. So wait for it, allow Me to do My work, and wait for the glory that will follow if you submit to My workings in you. So remember that I shall most certainly never leave you and never forsake you. I am forever your loving, caring Father, Saviour and Friend.

2008.01.19 - Interpretation of tongues

My children, I speak to you as to My precious ones. I speak unto you with the true love of a Father. I also speak unto you as your Lord, as your King. And both in My Lordship and in My Kingship is My relationship with you one of love and not one of force. My attitude towards you is always one of compassion, is always one of tenderness, but My children, that does not make Me weak. My Word says, 'Be still and know that I am God'. I will do whatever I please, I will do it when and how and where I please. And even in what may appear unto you as harshness, as hardness - it is always tender love and care. Because My children, I look into all eternity in whatever I do. And therefore accept My ways with you and therefore be quiet in My presence, and therefore really, really trust Me. And even when your mind and your commonsense tell you that what I am doing is incomprehensible and seems to be harsh and without love, then remember these words - that I AM love - I cannot do otherwise and I shall not do otherwise. And therefore rely upon My love, rely upon My tenderness, rely upon My character and also rely and know assuredly that I AM God and I AM the Almighty and I am the One deciding, in the end, everything. I have chosen and I have called you - in all your weakness, in all your smallness. I have called you, individually and as a group with a very, very high calling. I have determined to make you Mine and My children, I have called you to be with Me as overcomers. I have called you and I am going to great lengths to prepare you to be ready for the day I come to fetch My bride, for the day I come to fetch those who are ready. And many of the difficult things that you have experienced and are yet experiencing in your lives is because I am busy preparing you, is because I am busy loosening you from the bonds of the world, is because I care for you so deeply - for you to be Mine. And I have made these choices even before you've ever known Me. So also tonight receive My love, receive My tenderness, receive My presence and keep on trusting Me for I have a good plan for each one of you. I love you.

2008.01.26 - Prophetic Word

Persevere, says the Lord. Persevere on the road you are on knowing that I, even I, have put you on that road. As I have said before I will say again, you need not understand the road, you cannot anticipate the road, indeed you must not. But you must persevere on that road, knowing that I am with you, knowing that I have put you on that road, knowing that I have determined the outcome of that road, knowing My outcome is good, that My outcome is glory, is joy in the fullness of My presence, knowing that I am the One awaiting you at the end of that road. So walk the road, run the race, persevere trusting Me. I am with you, I have designed the course of your lives and it is a perfect design. Persevere to the end and you shall understand everything and I shall be there to meet you with joy, with glory and with love. I am longing for you to be united with Me in all fullness.

(In song on melody of Amazing Grace)

I know My own and I will never leave you,
I know all your needs and all your fears.
My eyes are upon you unto all eternity,
I have chosen you as My own.

And I care for everyone who has become Mine,
I will never ever forget about you,
I love you with tender care, My son.
Be quiet in My presence and love.

I present to you My peace and My joy,
Be quiet in My presence, My child,
And know that I will never ever leave or forsake you.
I know you, I love you, I am your God

2008.02.16 - Prophetic Word

I am still the Lord God Almighty, says the Lord. I am still the One who opens prison doors, I am still the One who heals the sick, Who gives sight to the blind, Who even raises the dead. Never do I speak a word and not fulfill it. Never do I say one thing and do another. Therefore know assuredly that every promise I have ever made you, I will fulfill. Your hope and your faith is not in vain. You will see the glory of the Lord God manifest in your midst. So then trust in Me and have peace, for I am in complete control. I love you, My children! I love you with such a tender heart and I really mean you only good. Have then peace in Me. Let go every fear. Do not listen to the lies of the enemy. I AM for you, I AM with you and I do love you! And I AM coming soon, says the Lord God.

2008.03.15 - Prophetic Word

Behold, says the Lord, I, even I, am your God. I, even I, have chosen you before you were born and I know you. I, the Almighty, pay full attention to you and to your life. I am involved in everything that concerns you. I know everything you do, I know your every thought, I know your every desire and I know the longing in your heart to meet Me, to be with Me. My children, that pleases Me so much. And therefore you may be sure and you may be certain that I shall not leave that need unattended to, because it is the desire of My heart for you to be where I am. That is why I have given My life - total victory, total victory over all the power of the enemy - total, complete and eternal victory; joy, peace, freedom, healing, never ending fulfillment. Forever shall you be with Me, by My side. And forever shall we have joy and fulfillment in all that we do. So My children, you have no idea what I have install for you. All those things in your heart that shimmer through, where you experience the joy or the desire of creation, of things that you know that would really make you happy, those are the things that are waiting to be fulfilled in totality when you are with Me. What the ear has not heard, what the eye has not seen, what the mind could not conceive have I laid in store for you - things of great joy, of great happiness, of great fulfillment. And therefore My children, I admonish you - set your hearts and your minds on Me that I might fulfill the desires of your heart. I love you.

Oh, My beloved, have I not carefully chosen every one of you? Have I not known you even when I hung on the cross? Have I not carefully protected you in all of your ways? Have I not supernaturally kept you from death and injury when Satan, My adversary, would have it otherwise? Have I not dedicated My attention to you and to those things that concern you? Have I not loved you right from the start? Shall I ever stop loving you? Your destiny is with Me.

Be assured of this thing - that My longing for you is greater than your longing for Me. Be assured that I am not about to leave you in the lurch, that I am not about to bring you to excitement and then leave you, that I am not about to stop things halfway through birth. I am not about to frustrate you and to test you beyond what you are able to take. My love for you is too great. So know that I have your good interests at heart. Know that I am shaping you and molding you carefully to be the exact object of My pride and of My joy and if it is necessary for another one or two things that need to be added to you, that need to be finalized, for the detail to be brought out - then trust Me with this, then believe Me that I say I love you even though I might subject you to unpleasant things. So know that your future has been secured by My decree, by My choice. Know that you are being groomed for eternal kingship with Me, for eternal fellowship and love towards Me. So allow Me to finish the work and let your joy be full and let your peace be overflowing because you certainly are in My hands, in the hands of God your Saviour, in the hands of the holy One Who created all things, in the hands of Him Who gave Himself for you. Do not underestimate that I've paid this big price for you - I was willing to pay this price because you are worth to Me this and much more. And I do not say this for you to become proud, I say this for you to realize and to accept - finally accept - My love for you and to rest in My love. Peace to you, My beloved.

My children, again and again will I tell you, once again will I reaffirm My love towards you, will I reaffirm My friendship towards you and do I affirm My good intentions towards you. Once again will I tell you that I have good plans for you, not bad ones. Once again will I encourage you to run this race right to the end, to set your eyes and your heart on Me, to refuse to be misled by the enemy and to take up other interests that will take your heart away from Me. Whatever you do, do it unto Me and unto Me only. These, My children, are serious times. My coming is at hand. Therefore, be ready and waiting for your Master is at the door. Do not be caught unawares, do not become busy with things of this world in such a fashion that it will take your heart and your mind away from Me. I am a jealous God and it is because I love you with a complete love. Be Mine now, that you should be Mine forever. I love you, says your God. Wait for Me.

My children, let not your hope grow dim, let not your focus be moved away from My calling and My destiny for you. Let not your faith waiver at what you see and think you understand, but let your hope and your faith and your love be fixed in the truth of My reality, in the truth of My love for you, in the truth of My sincere and utter devotion to you. Understand and accept by faith My attitude of grace and of mercy and of joy towards you. Understand this thing: that I long to be united with you more than you long to be united with Me, and that My plans are perfect and My timing is perfect, and that I know that your hearts are calling out to Me with great passion and I hear the calling of your heart. I hear what you cannot even put into words, and I listen and I care and I do not allow it to pass Me by. I AM the Bridegroom Who bought you with His very own life and Who is coming to fetch you to be with Myself. I love you!

I love you! I love you! How I love you, My bride! How I rejoice over you!

Die Here hoor elke versugting en sien elke traan wat val en dit word opgeteken in 'n boek en bring joy in die hemele. Moenie bang wees nie. Stap hierdie pad al is dit swaar, die Here sal jou deurdra - en jy sal jou loon ontvang.

Oh, My children, I have extended My never ending love over you. I have extended My ever present Fatherhood over you. I have become your Saviour and I save into all eternity. I have made Myself known to you and I have made you Mine and I never, ever forget that you are Mine. And never, ever are you separated from My loving Fatherhood. I see you, I know you, I care for you and I am with you every moment, everywhere. So trust Me and do not despair. Walk the road I've given you even though you do not understand it. Keep faith, know that I am there with you, especially in those moments when it doesn't feel like anything. Let your faith be tested. Let your faith and trust in Me be tried that it may be to praise, honour and glory at the coming of your Lord. So therefore, My children, I extend My peace and My goodwill and My true, sincere, deepest love over you. Rest in Me and receive this peace, says the Lord.

My children, I have made known unto you that My coming is at hand. That fact has not changed. I will not tell you how long you have to wait, I will not give you the date, but know that My coming is at hand. Do not forget about it, do not neglect this important thing. Those who wait upon Me shall receive new strength. They shall fly like the eagles. And I shall receive you unto Myself and you shall be partakers of My glory and enjoy that we shall do all things together from that point onwards. Do not let your hope waver, I am coming to you. I have made this known in many ways and many times. Keep waiting. It does not matter if you wait for weeks or months. Keep waiting, because My plan is perfect and the reasons I have for you to wait are not for you to understand now but later on you shall, says the Lord.

-----

There is a great, great harvest to come and it is close by. And you, My children, are destined to be part of the harvesters.

-----

Keep faith, says the Lord, and do not fear. Every word I have ever spoken I will fulfill. I am coming! I am coming! I am coming soon!

-----

Wag vir My tyd. Wag vir My plek. Wag vir My geleentheid. Wag vir MY. EK KOM!

For the day of the Lord is coming and it's burning like a fire. Let your focus be turned to My coming kingdom. Let your attention be fixed upon My glory to come. Let your joy exceed in the knowledge of My victory and be not saddened because of all the turmoil on the earth, because of falsehood and wrongdoing for the day of My vengeance is near and My righteousness shall supercede all the present unrighteousness and My glory shall be affirmed unto the heavens. Behold, I have made you Mine and chosen you as part of My army of victory. I have consecrated you, given you a new name, given you a destiny at My side. Receive these promises. Live by them, full of joy not full of fear, full of the peace of My presence and My calling on your life, of My destiny that I have for you. Be not afraid of the threats of this world. Satan is cringing before you and you are victorious over him in My Name, for when I am with you no power of the enemy shall stand against you. But be patient, My children, be patient, for everything has a perfect time and a perfect place. I will not allow you to mess things up by being in control of this time, but I understand because I've been a man with all the weakness you have. Therefore be patient and wait upon Me in trust. Trust Me in My timing and in My planning. But know this once again that great and glorious things are awaiting you if you keep on trusting Me and if you keep on focusing your lives and your attention and your hope on Me. I love you, each one of you, says the Lord.

Behold, My children, says the Lord, My day is at hand and I shall thoroughly purge this earth of all its evil and I shall bring on a new day of glory and of joy and of righteousness. And I shall be King over all the earth and My Lordship shall be known unto all the heavens. And I shall set right what is wrong. I shall cast out darkness and death. I shall certainly, completely, totally make all things new. Do not doubt that this is your destiny, My children. Do not doubt that I have called you to be part of My cleaning-up operations. Do not doubt that I still have a day of praise left for this earth and I've destined you to be part of that, to be bearers of My grace, to be there as channels of My goodness and My message and My power. So, My children, LET NOT YOUR HOPE GROW DIM! Pick up the weak knees and the trembling heart and go on with a firm step for My word shall surely come to pass. Do not doubt your destiny, do not doubt the situation that you are in and let it not cause you to lose hope. I am with you, I am for you and I shall complete what I have started in your lives. So, peace to you, My children, and have joy in Me and have joy in what is coming very, very soon. I love you, says the Lord.

An eternal inheritance, says your Lord. Because I love you, I have provided, I have established, consecrated even, an eternal inheritance for you at My side. My love for you extend all bounds of your comprehension. My joy and My favour towards you are beyond what the human mind can conceive or understand. The plans I have for you are above anything you can imagine. The things laid up for you in the heavens are so great and marvelous that nothing on this earth can ever compare to it. And no sorrow and no misfortune and no trial and no difficult thing on your path can ever compare to the joy, to the greatness of My grace that I have laid up for you. And every difficult thing in this life that you have gone through will I, even I - your God, your Lord, your Saviour, your King - will I recompense to you hundredfold. I have said this many times and I say it again: I really love you. You need not deserve it, you must not try to deserve it, you must not think in terms of whether you deserve it or not. That is not My desire. My desire is for you to respond to My love and to love Me right back. And I will lead you through and I will take you by the hand and I will lead you on to the finishing line of your race. I will lead you on into victory so that you shall be by My side forevermore. Nothing this earth can offer, nothing this world can offer can compare at all with your inheritance in Me. Be careful to not lose your inheritance by deeming things of this world to be important, but do all unto Me with a total heart of dedication and in this way will I complete what I have started with you and will you receive a full inheritance. I love you, says the Lord. Peace to you.

My people shall indeed see Me face to face. You are My people and this is your inheritance, this is your future, this is your joy. And for the joy set before Him My Son has endured the cross. For the joy set before you endure your road on earth. Be quiet in My presence. Be filled with the joy that awaits you. Wait upon Me in stillness, setting your own ideas, your own timescales aside. Just be willing to be truly led by My Spirit. Just be willing for Me to do with you and unto you and through you whatever I want to. Set aside the need to understand. But understand this and know this: that I am your God, I am the God Who created all things, I am the Almighty, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of Israel, and I am your God. And know that I am on your side. And know that all things done unto you is done in love, is done for your benefit. And also know and understand this: your future is secure in Me. Never walk away from Me, just cling to Me and in all things giving thanks unto Me. And in that way shall you assure your full inheritance, by counting it all joy, even when things go badly. And thus I encourage you and I beseech you to just cling to Me and cling to the knowledge of My love for you. Know that nothing - absolutely nothing - will happen unto you apart from Me. Not a hair of your head shall be lost, says the Lord.

Oh My children, says the Lord, have I not ever been to you a Father who really cares? Who protects, who guides and who loves you no matter what you ever did? And I have brought you thus far, says the Lord, and I will take you through to the end. I will not leave you now. I will be true to My nature. I will do what I know has to be done. But not one of you need to fear that I will leave you on your own. Not one need to fear that I will abandon you to your own designs, to your own wisdom, to your own worth. That's why I sent My Son, to be in your stead what you can never be. I have loved you with an everlasting love, and thus will I love you forever. I have purposed you, My children, for the greatest calling that man can envisage. And I am sending you the message that I am sending My Son to fetch you, His Bride. Lift up your eyes, see that your redemption draws nigh. Abandon all fear. Abandon everything within you that tend to look at yourselves, that tend to evaluate your worth to Me. You cannot evaluate it. Your worth for Me was enough for My Son to die on the cross, you cannot evaluate the value of that. Just accept My love. Just accept your standing in My eyes. Just accept that you are favoured ones in the eyes of the Almighty, and cling to Me. Put all your trust and all your faith and all your hope in Me and in the completed work of My Son. And receive the peace of the knowledge of your future in Jesus. I love you more than any father can ever love and I always will, says the Lord.

Unto freedom have I called you, My children, My own. Freedom only I can give. Freedom from the stranglehold of the world, of the flesh, of sin, of death, of illness, of iniquity, of foolishness, of pride, of prejudice. Freedom, complete freedom in Me, to walk in love, to walk in peace, in joy, in longsuffering, in kindness, in goodness, in freedom of My Spirit. Not the bondages of law, not the bondages of prescriptions, of condemnation. Not the bondages of being good enough and to remain good enough. Not the bondages of people around you judging and you listening to that. Listen to Me. Look at Me. I am the way and the truth and the life. In Me there is freedom, in Me there is forgiveness. In My there is understanding. Raise your soul to Me. Be fed by Me. In all circumstances ask My opinion, not the opinion of man. And know that I hold the future. I determine your future. I will protect you and I will keep you. I will never forget about you. I will never be busy elsewhere leaving you on your own. I am there for you. In these days especially, I am there for you. So reach out and touch Me. Reach out in faith and seek My will, seek My face, seek My opinion. And know that My dealings towards you are grace. It does not consist of loads upon loads of responsibilities, and of being something, of being better, of being good enough. Instead it is an openness of faith in receiving My grace towards you. I have grace enough. Receive it and let your attitude towards Me not be to be good enough, but let it be a love that transcends your own requirements. Just love Me with what you have. I desire your love. I desire your hearts to be tuned to Me, and then you shall walk in the freedom that I give you. And My children, the freedom I have for you up ahead, is so great that your minds cannot conceive it. And therefore I also tell you, so that you can rejoice, and that your joy may be full. So look towards Me and receive My freedom, not My bondage, and be joyful in Me knowing that great, great things are awaiting you just around the corner. I love you and I care deeply for you. Remember that, says the Lord.

Die bankettafels staan gereed, 'n feesmaal soos jy nie kan dink nie, in die banketsaal van My hemelse glorie. Terwyl die donker wolke saampak op hierdie wêreld, is ek besig om My volk te reinig en te heilig, is Ek besig om die wingerdstok te veredel. En vanaand wil ek deur My Gees op julle blaas en Ek wil sê ontvang die Heilige Gees, die belofte van die Vader soos wat Ek in My woord gesê het. Vrees niks van hierdie wêreld nie. Vrees niks van hierdie wêreld en sy dinge en sy omstandighede nie. Kom nader na My toe. En vanaand wil Ek die kruik vat en Ek wil die goudstof van My heerlikheid op julle uitgiet. Ek wil die goudstof van My genade op julle uitgiet, die salwing wat elke juk sal breek. En vanaand wil Ek hê dat jy in jou gees sal sien op die horison hoe die donker wolke saampak, maar dat jy ook 'n heerlike oseaan van spierwit glassesee sal sien soos wat Ek met My heerlikheid deur My bruid en deur My kerk die magte van die hel en die duisternis oorwin het. En My volk sal oorwin deur die bloed van die Lam en deur die woord van hulle getuienis. Soos 'n soete geur versprei Ek deur jou gees, en Ek maak jou gees lewendig vanaand en Ek blaas My Gees in jou gees in dat daar nie meer dor bene in 'n laagte sal lê nie, maar Ek blaas My Gees, My lewegewende krag blaas Ek in jou gees in vanaand and I revive your spirit, says the Lord. I revive your spirit. Fix your eyes on Me tonight and see the glory that I have prepared and see tonight that I am cladding you in garments whiter than the snow so that you may be ready when I come for you. I am coming soon! The time of My return is at hand, it's imminent. More imminent than it's ever been. And there is no vocabulary that can truly and powerfully describe how imminent. It's right here! You need to be tuned in on the wavelengths of My Spirit. You need to experience that fine prompting of My Holy Spirit right in your heart, that it will fill every fibre of your entire being, that it's going to transcend the things you know in your broken, fallible state and that you're going to become heavenly minded and that you're going to be filled with the Spirit and that the dynamic of My Spirit will fill your spirit that you will be dynamite for My Kingdom. That which transcends atomic power, that which transcends nuclear power, that which you've never known or understood before, you are going to see it vividly revealed within and through your own lives and that it will spill out to people around you. My walk with you is not made up of the great moments. The things that truly matter are not the great moments of this world but the great moments that you allow Me to breathe My life-giving Spirit into your spirit, that you will be absolutely and powerfully prepared, that you will be gloriously prepared, that you will be ready, that you will be enamored, shining as gold in the sun. I am pouring out the gold dust of My glory on you tonight - and receive it, receive it! It's raining down like fire. There's a mighty rushing wind and if you listen finely you are going to hear it rumbling like the far off sound of thunder. It's coming closer and it's coming closer. My people you have no reason to fear. You have no reason to fear the systems of this world, because you belong to another world, you belong to a Kingdom which is unshakeable, you belong to a Kingdom which cannot even be spoken, which cannot be even uttered in human vocabulary. I'm ready to reveal My glory unto you. Be sensitive to what I am speaking into your spirit tonight. I am truly preparing a church which I want to welcome into glorious places. I've set the banqueting tables. Heavens orchestras are ready and tuning in their instruments. I'm ready to receive My bride to come up to where I am.

You do not need to doubt, you need not question. All you have to do is to obey. All I want is your undivided love and your obedience and your commitment and your dedication unto Me. I want a bride who is dedicated, who is committed in every single way. And all the clutter of this world will be shut up that it's not even going to matter to you any more. You will look at circumstances, you will see it and you will take note of it and it's going to have no effect upon you any longer because already you have reached the plane where I have prepared you and I have matured your spirit. I have matured your spirit to understand what I am saying to My church.

Jy het nie 'n idee wat Ek vir jou voorberei het nie, sê die Here. Dit het nie eers in jou hart in opgekom nie, jou breinvermoë kan dit nie hanteer dit wat Ek vir jou voorberei het nie. En Ek is gereed om aan die bruilofsmaal saam met jou aan te sit. Ek is gereed om jou te wys Wie Ek waarlik is. Ten dele het jy geken vir so lank, maar jy is op die punt om te verstaan, om ten volle te ken net soos wat jy altyd ten volle geken is. En Ek is hier met My soete geur om jou vanaand aan te doen met krag uit die hoogte.

2009.02.21 - Interpretation of tongues

Have I not told you so many times that you are not to fear, that you are not to look in trepidation at the world and its affairs, that you are not to concern yourself about this world and its falling apart; that your eyes and your mind - the focus of your being must be upon Me, upon My coming Kingdom, My coming glory, My victory that has already been assured on the cross. So command yourself, do not look at this world, do not be concerned about it. That is My concern. But you be concerned with Me and with My coming that is very near. Forsake those efforts to understand or to try to understand. Forsake all those own opinions and ideas as to what should happen and what should not happen, as to when should it happen and when not. Be still and know that I am God and I shall be exalted in this earth, and I shall be exalted among the nations, and I shall be exalted in your lives. And I shall glorify and bring to pass every word I've spoken. So be at peace in the knowledge, in this one knowledge - that I am God and that I love you and that I am with you and that I understand you, and I know all things about you and nothing you can do today can catch Me be surprise because I've known about it already long ago. I know all things from the beginning. And having known all things I have chosen you and made you Mine, taken delight in you. I am still taking delight in you. So be like clay in My hands and let Me bring you into the glory of My Kingdom. Let Me bring you into the glory and the joy of My presence. I shall do it. The time is at hand, says the Lord.

Thoughts

A collection of thoughts taken from various sources

W-1

Four LOOKS to live by:
Look back - and praise Him!
Look up - and trust Him!
Look around - and serve Him!
Look forward - and expect Him!

W-2

Prayer succeeds when it melts into commitment and obedience; it fails when it is treated as a recital of my own needs and an attempt to force God to act.

W-3

The church exists to sight, signal, support and celebrate the coming of the Kingdom of God.

W-4

The secret of coping is hoping in God.

W-5

God often gives us a little to see to, to see if we can be trusted with a lot.

W-6

Better the storm with Christ, than smooth waters without Him.

W-7

God's promises were never meant to be thrown aside as waste paper. He intended that they should be used. God's gold is not miser's money, but is minted to be traded with. Nothing pleases our Lord better than to see His promises put into circulation; He loves to see His children bring them up to Him, and say: "Lord, do as You have said".

W-8

God will not tolerate anything in our life that takes the supreme place which is His by right.

W-9

When the heart has learned to trust Him as He should be trusted, utterly, without reservations, then the Lord throws wide the doors of the treasure house of grace.

W-10

Be sure you remain covered with a canopy of praise. It is like a tent over and around you. Satan has no entrance as long as you pin down the sides by praising and thanking God for His wonderful promises.

W-11

In the life of the true believer there are no accidents.

W-12

Worry is a cycle of inefficient thoughts, whirling around a centre of fear.

W-13

Worry is distress of mind, not concern. Some people ought to have more concern.

W-14

Worry is sinking under the sense of responsibility, yielding to fear that there may be failure, instead of gripping the lines and whip and determining to ride down the chance of its coming.

W-15

Jesus Christ knows no fear, and He expects you to fear nothing while He is with you. When we confess His Lordship and our hearts fully agree, then we turn our lives over into His care. That is the end of worry and fear, and the beginning of faith.

W-16

The folly of being anxious about the near future is just as stupid as worrying about what will happen about a thousand years hence. We have to live in the present moment, because we can do nothing about the past, and God is doing everything about the future.

W-17

When a train goes through a tunnel and it gets dark, you don't throw away your ticket and jump off. You sit still and trust the engineer.

W-18

Our trust and hope are not in the promises, but in the One who made the promises.

W-19

We are to do heavenly business. The earthly part of it is only a detail.

W-20

We will see more and more that we are chosen not because of our ability, but because of His power that will be demonstrated in our not being able.

W-21

Faith sees the invisible, believes the unbelievable and receives the impossible.

W-22

Men have to go through many experiences in order to get the spiritual vision which is needed to see the divine plan. A film is always developed in a dark room.

WT.23

Our prayers are so precious in God's eyes, that they are all preserved in heaven. (Rev. 8:3,4)

W-24

Remember, prayer is not one way traffic. If it were, it would be similar to someone coming into your house, asking a question and then leaving without waiting for an answer. Prayer is both asking and receiving (though the receiving part may take decades); both speaking and listening. Yes, that takes time.

W-25

The devil smiles when we make plans. He laughs when we get too busy. But he trembles when we pray - especially when we pray together.

W-26

Prayer changes our attention from the problem to the Power; from anxiety to the Almighty.

W-27

Prayer is opening up our sluice gates to the mighty ocean of God.

W-28

If a care is too small to be turned into a prayer, it is too small to be made into a burden.

W-29

Prayer is the same as the breathing of air for the lungs. Exhaling makes us get rid of our dirty air. Inhaling gives clean air. To exhale is to confess, to inhale is to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

W-30

When the devil can't make you bad, he makes you busy.

W-31

It is not service that matters, but intense spiritual reality, expecting Jesus Christ at every turn ... the attitude of child-wonder which He wants us to have. The one great need is not the question whether we are of any use, but to face Him.

W-32

Ek kan nooit regtig geestelik wandel en oorheersend 'n geestelike bewussyn hê, tensy ek al my eie vleeslike behoeftes, drome, planne, vreugdes, probleme, bekommernisse, verwagtinge, ens. aflê en prysgee nie. Selfs om beloftes van die Here te vat en vas te hou en te verlang na die fisiese belewing of uitvoering daarvan, sal my geestelike bewussyn strem en my oë aardwaarts rig i.p.v. Christuswaarts! Lê al daardie dinge af, en wandel in Gees!
-Kol. 3:1-7, Luk. 8:14-15, Gal. 5:25

Loof die Here altyddeur met blydschap!

Dank die Here reeds vir die vervulling van Sy beloftes, selfs nog voor dit fisies ontvang is. (Soos 'n klein kindjie wat opgewonde en bly en met volle vertroue in die vermoë en goeie, opwindende verrassings en planne wat sy pa vir hom het, met sy pa saamstap.)

Dit behaag die HERE dat ons saam met Hom opgewonde en bly is, soos 'n kind wat vertrou en liefhet. Laat ons dan nie saamstap met suur gesigte vol ontevredenheid, kommer, vrees of selfs onbelangstelling nie. Die HERE is goed!
Hallelujah!

W-34

Faith is not intelligent understanding. Faith is deliberate commitment to a Person, where I see no way.

W-35

Worry is a sin.

Worry is the equivalent of saying: "God I know You mean well by what You are saying, but I'm just not sure You can pull it off".

Worry is the sin of distrusting the promise and the providence of God.

Worry is interest paid on trouble before it's due.

Worry is a thin stream of fear that trickles through the mind. If encouraged, it will cut a channel so wide that all other thoughts will be drowned in it.

Worry is faith in the negative, trust in the unpleasant, assurance of disaster and belief in defeat.

Worry is wasting today's time to clutter up tomorrow's opportunities with yesterday's troubles.

Worry is 'mental strangulation'.

W-36

In die wrede storms, het 'n ou matroos gesê, moet ons net een ding doen, en is daar net een weg: ons moet die skip in 'n bepaalde posisie stuur en hom daarin hou.

Jy moet in die Here bly; en laat kom wat wil - winde, golwe, seestrome, donderweer, weerlig, dreigende rotse, dreunende branders - dit maak nie saak wat nie, bind jouself vas aan die stuurwiel en laat jou vertroue stewig vasklem aan Gods getrouheid, aan Sy verbondsafpraak en aan Sy ewigdurende liefde in Christus Jesus.

W-37

"Seek Me and live." Never "Seek from Me and live."

W-38

Ministry unto the LORD should be the main thrust, not ministry unto the people.

W-39

Ek het jare gelede my lewe geheel-en-al (lock, stock & barrel) aan die HERE gegee, en alle regte wat ek op my lewe gehad het, aan HOM gegee - dat Hy my lewe voortaan sou besit en dit sou uitwerk nes Hy wil. Of daardie stap dan nou reg of verkeerd, goed of sleg was, is nie eens ter sprake nie. Dit is onomkeerbaar! Ek kan my lewe nie weer terugneem nie. Dit is nie meer myne om terug te neem nie. Die HERE is daarom nou in volle beheer van my lewe en alles wat daarmee gebeur of nie gebeur nie. Dit is nie vir my om enigiets voor te skryf of te wil dikteer of manipuleer nie. Dit is vir my om met dankbaarheid alles te ontvang wat Hy my gee of nie gee nie. En met vergenoegdheid en volle oorgawe die pad te bly stap.

The Lord doesn't do great things in a hurry. Wait patiently for Him!

W-41

We conquer by continuing.

W-42

You advance spiritually by finding out what you really are, not by trying to become what you hope to be. It is when you see you are dead that you die; it is when you see you are risen that you arise; it is when you see you are holy that you become holy. Seeing the accomplished fact determines the pathway to the realizing of that fact. The end is reached by seeing, not by desiring or working. The whole point at issue is not of doing in order to be at all, but of doing because of being.

If Christ is the centre of our lives, He will take care of the circumference.

{Lord, what about keeping the Sabbath?}

My child, I have given My Sabbaths to My people Israel as a sign and as a covenant between Me and them, that I AM both the Creator and the Provider of all things. And this is good for any and all of My children to remember and to commemorate. However, I have never given the command to keep the Sabbath as a law to the Gentiles, even as I have not put the requirement of circumcision to the Gentiles. Be free in the freedom I have given you and do not bring yourself into bondage again.

Dedicate your life - all your time, all your efforts, all your activities, and all of your future to Me. Let Me carry on being the Creator and Provider in your entire life and in all that it entails - not just for a single day, but in everything and always. I love you.

T-2

{Lord, what meant by "The word of our testimony" (Rev.12:11)}

The word of your testimony is that which proceeds from out of your mouth. It is that which either glorifies Me or glorifies you or something or somebody else. It is that which is either in accordance with My word and My declared purpose and plan, or which speaks against all that. It is that which either fulfills My desire, or the desire of man. It is that which either satisfies the desires of the flesh, or which is according to the Spirit. It is that which either takes authority over the works and desires of the enemy, or which submits itself to the same. Yes, it is that which either uplifts Me or which doubts Me in My love and trustworthiness towards you. And this is of equal importance to the blood of the Lamb and the denial of self in overcoming the enemy. Be then especially careful what you allow to proceed from out of your mouth, My child, for that will either hinder you in your fight against the evil one who desires for you to fail in reaching the destination of victory, or it will greatly assist you in that venture.

T-3

{Lord, how should we deal with Halaal products in practice?}

My child, I have granted you victory in My Son. I have made you new and have set you in heavenly places far above the things of the flesh and of Satan. In this is your victory, and not in overcoming Satan yourselves in every situation and at every turn. You have already been given victory. Therefore, walk in this victory. When the Son has set you free, you shall be free indeed - therefore, walk in this freedom.

You are free to not touch the things of Satan, but if you do when you have no other option, you do it in victory and not in submission. You are free to choose to not eat things sacrificed to idols, but when you do because you had no other option in the circumstances, then know that Christ's victory was also over this, and it shall have no effect on you. Walk then in the victory and in the freedom I have given you, and do not be brought back under bondage by things of the flesh. However, serve Me and not your fleshly indulgences. I love you.

{Lord, it seems wrong to baptize by triple immersion. How should we think about this? And is it wrong to rebaptize somebody at a later stage?}

My Word explains the fact that to be baptized in the Name of Jesus represents the establishment of a covenant relationship between you and My Son Jesus; being united with Him in death and in resurrection. And by that you receive the Name of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. And clearly, you are buried once only and resurrected once only. But, My child, if I should seek technical points in order to find fault in what My children do, what kind of a Father would I be? I look at the heart and not at the technicality of the execution. And I look at obedience flowing from an honest heart, rather than knowledge or the lack thereof that either leads to, or stems from, an arrogant mind. Give Me your heart and give Me your trust and I will guide you into all truth. But if your heart is not with Me, but with your own interests and plans and purposes, your obedience and your trust shall also be lacking, and you will do the wrong thing because you will not seek, neither find, the truth. Being baptized more than once through a heart that is set on Me, is so much better than effectively not being baptized at all, because your heart was not with Me, but with human pressure or interest the first time. I love you.

{'Toronto Manifestations': What to make of it?}

My son, have I not told you in the past, more than once, that I am the Rewarder of the one that seeks Me; that I am the One who cares for you, and will ever keep on caring for you; that I am He who keeps you on the Way, and ever will keep you on the Way, as long as you are willing to follow Me and not men - as long as you are willing to do the unpopular thing which no one else understands or agrees with, when I ask that from you; as long as you remain willing to forsake yourself and the opinion of man, to follow Me. And was I ever followed by multitudes in the past? Only when they could receive something from Me. But how many remained with Me at the cross? And so it is even now,

My child. Many, many will follow Me for selfish reasons, but few will follow Me because they truly love Me, even if it would be to their own detriment. And for this very reason have I spoken in My word, that I - even I - would send the spirit of error, so that everyone who seeks gain or mirth or health or wealth or popularity or acceptance or power or influence or anything that tickles him in body, mind or emotions, or anything that he enjoys, decides or demands - instead of Me - shall be shown out and sifted out, and stand naked without a garment of pretense covering up their own selfishness and lack of true commitment to Me in the face of the demands for true self-sacrifice in following Me. I have called them all many times, and I have made known to them My will and My word which says: 'If anyone will follow Me, he has to forsake himself and take up his cross and follow Me' - but they would not listen, and preferred those preachers who told them pleasant things.

If, then, I am a Rewarder of the one who diligently seeks Me, would I reward with manifestations of a human nature and not of a godly nature? Of a fleeting, fleshly nature and not of an eternal, spiritual nature? Of a cheap and shallow nature as found in the shows and performances presented by man and not of a deep and noble nature as befits the Spirit of the Holy and True God and Creator of all things? No, My child, My reward I am about to give to My true disciples shall be of a vastly different nature than what you see displayed at present. I am a Holy God! And in My presence, no unholiness - nothing common - shall be tolerated! I shall manifest Myself to those who truly love Me, and they shall be like Me and act like Me, for they shall see Me as I am. And they shall receive power to witness for Me and to suffer shame for My Name - not their own. I love you.

{Concerning the sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit}

My blessed Holy Spirit is the LIFE I give to My children. And everyone who resists and refuses My Holy Spirit, refuses My life, and shall not receive remission of sins. Everyone who refuses Me or My Son, Jesus, but yet receives and welcomes My Holy Spirit, shall be convicted by that same Spirit - of sin and of righteousness and of judgment - and shall come to the full knowledge of the truth, and shall receive and welcome and acknowledge and serve both the Father and the Son. Therefore, the one who rejects and resists the Holy Spirit, shall not see life, for he shall not see and obey Jesus in Whom is the Life. I have decreed that My Holy Spirit shall be the Conveyer of Life and Salvation: the Life and Salvation that Jesus has brought into the world unto the sons of men. And therefore is My Holy Spirit the One who is directly involved in giving that Life, and in being that Life. And He cannot be refused without that Life being refused.

{What is meant by the word 'blaspheme' Lord?}

To blaspheme, My son, is to speak evil of - which is the same as to consider such a one being spoken evil of, as either the enemy, or as someone not deemed worthy to count as a friend or as one of your own. In this way such a one is excluded from your heart, even though the external pretence of 'friendship' or acceptance can be faked. In the same way the Holy Spirit, if resisted in the heart, if excluded from the heart, is 'blasphemed'.

If on the other hand, the Holy Spirit's work is 'blasphemed' in the external, through lack of knowledge or deception by the enemy, whilst He is accepted and loved in the heart, it is the same as a mistaken identity which in the natural can cause a friend to be treated as an enemy, but only until the mistake is discovered - and then all amends, and more so, will be made because of the unintended mistake. Because friendship - true friendship - is in the heart. And blasphemy which counts before God, is blasphemy that comes from the heart, and not blasphemy which comes from lack of knowledge or from deception by the enemy. Mistakes of that nature are immediately known by any friend who is accidentally mistaken as an enemy; and subsequently always serves as a binding and a deepening of true friendship once the mistake is rectified and amends made.

I see the heart, My son. And My judgment always concerns the heart.

T-7

{Lord, what does it mean to pray/ask 'In the Name of Jesus'? What/how may we ask in the Name of Jesus and what/how not?}

In the Name of Jesus is the only way that you live and breath and act and do anything that you do, because you have received My Name in betrothal, in My blood, Word and Spirit. You are Mine. Therefore, whatever you do and whatever you ask, do you do and ask in the Name of Jesus! You need not state it again and again. I know who you are and that you are Mine. And I consider your every prayer as being simultaneously the prayer of Jesus for you. You should consider it the same. It is the world and the enemy forces of darkness that need to be given the notification of something that is done or said in the Name of Jesus. But I know, and need not be reminded. However, you need to remember all the time that you are Mine, and all you say and do is done in the Name of Jesus. Therefore, be careful what you say and do, for I love you.

{Letter to a Newager}

Dear Bill, I AM HE Whom you despise enough to make equal to created things and created beings. I AM the CREATOR. I AM not to be compared to My creation. I alone AM the Creator, and nothing on earth or in the heavens is to be compared with Me on any equal footing. And you may argue with your puny mind as much as you may want to, but in the end you shall stand ashamed in My presence, for you may have cute arguments against the limitations and even foolishness of the religiosity of fallen man, but against My holiness and truth you shall have no answer, except to try to hide from the presence of My glory. And then, neither Lazaris, nor Dwjal Kul, nor Satan himself shall be able to save you, nor to intervene on your behalf, but you shall stand naked and alone and with no cute arguments remaining in the presence of your Creator; both of you and of those spirit entities you revere so highly, yeah, higher than you revere Me, to Whom all glory belongs.

However, Bill, I know the limitations of your mind, and I know the deceit of your day. I know the filth and the lies that you and your generation are bombarded with daily, and I know how you grew up in the midst of cleverly camouflaged half-truths and deceitful arguments. And even in the name of religion, using My Name vainly, My adversary, and the adversary of all mankind, has been laying a false foundation on which he has been building what is now known as the New Age Thinking. And based upon this false foundation and premises, he is taking countless innocent people captive to do his will - thus transgressing against the Only Living God. And whereas I am your Friend, and he your enemy, he is changing this around, causing you to perceive Me as the enemy and him as the friend. My adversary's name is Satan, and he is the head of the kingdom of darkness, which he prefers to call light. And all of his followers in the spiritual realm are called evil spirits and spirits of darkness, by Me. However, they prefer to call themselves points of light. But, Bill, take a good look at where Satan is worshipped, and there you will find darkness, pain and death, and every form of corruption and perversion - for though he calls himself light, his actions and being prove otherwise, and he is not able to hide that. And then, Bill, take a good look at where I am worshipped in spirit and in truth, and you will find light, peace, healing, joy and abundance of life. You shall find no secret dealings and conspiracies. You shall not find man rebelling against My authority and trying to become powerful in themselves, but you will rather find man forsaking his own interests in favour of Mine. But in religion, which is Satan's counterfeit of the true worship of God, you will find all forms of secrecy, conspiracy, darkness, deceit, falsehood, power-playing, self-interest and rubbish, which is about to exert My wrath on a system which has kept My people captive long enough. Yes, that day of My wrath has drawn nigh. Therefore, if you choose to look for Me in religion, you are bound to end up in judgment, for I am not found there. It was religion that spearheaded the action to crucify My Son when He came to make atonement for the transgressions of mankind. It was religion that ruled throughout the Dark Ages - rightly called Dark. It was and still is religion which opposes every true child of Mine, worshipping Me in spirit and in truth; persecuting those who have made a true commitment to follow and to obey Me, rather than the religion of their day and place. So then, if you look to find Me in religion, you will only find My adversary in a cloak of holy pretense.

If then, you truly desire to find Me, then open your eyes and your mind to what I have shown you in these few words; then admit to yourself and to Me that your ability in understanding spiritual and eternal matters fall far short of the mark; then bow in humble worship before Me, your Creator, Who desires for you to live and not die, Who has made a way for you to be forgiven all your transgressions and be made entirely new, thus becoming My very own child, Whom you do not yet know, but Who is willing to make Himself known to you - IF you will come to Me, the ONLY Creator of love and light and life. Satan and those spirit entities of yours present themselves as points of light and love, but are in fact the opposite. The choice as to whom you will believe remains yours, Bill. I will not force you. I desire life and not death, but I will force nobody to choose either life or death for himself. That choice remains that of man. Although the time for My adversary is short, he still has the opportunity to exert his influence, and man still has the choice to listen to him and to follow him rather than Me. You too. But My invitation remains open: If you truly seek to find out Who I really am, then tell Me that, but first be willing to lay aside all your present ideas and opinions of the spiritual realm. They are based on lies and half-truths, and with them you will find yourself coming under the same judgment of death and eternal darkness away from My presence, as your would-be spirit entities and 'points of light and love' will. And they will most certainly not be able to help you at all in that day, because they themselves will already have been judged and removed from My presence forever.

My child, behold and see My love and My care and My presence being active in your life and circumstances. And, yes, the time of My coming is at hand! Be ready and waiting, for it shall be totally unexpected and suddenly. And I am looking forward to it. So should you. I love you all.

The Beast you are enquiring about is technology driven by the False Prophet who is a major force in Satan's kingdom, being third in rank following Satan himself and the Antichrist. And he shall be destroyed at My coming. Through deceit and the use of computers and Internet-communication, shall he install a world-wide net of control on those who do not know Me, yeah even on many who do know Me, but were unwilling to accept and love the truth: self-denial and a definite turning away from the world and its ways and a positive turning to Me instead - letting Me be in control of their lives and arranging their affairs. And through computer-technology shall he install fear and worship unto the Antichrist and his world system. And through computer-technology shall everyone without the mark be denied the opportunity to buy or sell. And through computer-technology shall he give life to the image of the Beast and create an interactive sphere of worship and control between the individual and the system, thus taking them captive.

{Lord, but what about Your children who have to use Internet as part of their job?}

My child, I am able to protect Mine in any circumstance. However, each should know the dangers and pray specifically for My protection. And then I will protect them and keep them for as long as I will keep them in the situation to be involved with this beast.

T-10

{Lord, can You tell us more about the number 666, please?}

For many centuries nobody could know what it means, and nobody needed to know. But now shall it become progressively more clear what it means, even to the unbeliever in the end.

Yes, it is the number of a man - even of man in general who lives out of himself, by himself and unto himself. This number is the epitome of haughtiness and pride and utter selfishness: a self-image blown up out of all proportions. Yet it is also the number of the system - even the systems: both technological and commercial. And thus shall this number progressively crop up more and more frequently and blatantly in the dealings of the Antichrist and False Prophet and their systems. You shall be able to recognize it as it appears.

T-11

{Lord, why is the second beast called 'the False Prophet'}

Because, My child, he falsely prophesies and relays the messages of a false god via a false god system. He is deceitful in all his ways and deceives men in droves because they have faith in his false god and cannot believe that there can be anything wrong with it. Falsely do they trust in themselves to be able to discern wrong when it comes, not knowing that they cannot outwit this angel of Satan. Thus will he utilize things that has no inherent evil (looking like a lamb) for evil (speaking like a dragon). This is a false prophet: posing as good and for the benefit of man, but actually working for their destruction.

T-12

{Lord, what about the mighty wonders the False Prophet will do?}

My child, the false prophet is and remains an angel from the kingdom of darkness; an angel with great power and ability. And this ability will he utilize to deceive mankind. Whereas, on the one hand, he has (and will) install a worldwide control-system via technology (because he is not omnipresent), he will on the other hand, in a local fashion, perform his great deeds of folly in the sight of men in order to impress them to follow the Antichrist. And these signs will be done at he hand of men and women who are available for this task - many of them within the church, and others within the New Age Movement or some occultic group. Yes, great signs and wonders will be performed, and even (falsely) in My Name with the purpose to attract people (especially My children) to link themselves to the Antichrist, to take the mark; to become worldly in their thoughts and attitudes and to ridicule My second coming. I have set you free from all this. Remain free. I love you.

{Lord, please explain the parable of the mustard seed? (Mat. 13:31-32)}

The mustard seed is faith that is to be applied in the death of the self-life: sacrificing own effort and ability and glory into death, that My own ability and life and glory may spring forth. In every situation it is either the one, or the other, but not both! And whether you, in yourself be small or big, insignificant like a mustard seed, or great and glorious in your own eyes or in that of the world, the process is the same - self-chosen sacrifice of the flesh and its glory and ability, that My life may spring forth in its stead - and the smallest may become the biggest. The tree, My child, is the church; born of faith, rooted in My love and consisting of My life in the lives of believers; having various branches, roots and leaves; al being one great whole even like a body. And the birds, with their nests, are foreign bodies within My church, using My church for their own purposes; yet not being part of My life. Even ruling to a lesser or greater extend over My church; seeing the church as for them rather than they for My church - and simply and blatantly using My church for their own purposes - something which I will allow until the time of the end, when I will change the whole complexion of My church.

{Lord, please explain the parable of the leaven? (Mat.13:33)}

Yeast, My child, is false doctrine aimed at boosting the ego and the self-life rather than My life in your midst. It is being puffed up with your own whims and desires; with your own glory and ability; with your own worth and standing - in pride and arrogance considering yourself better than others. And this self-centered, puffed-up doctrine of knowledge aimed at self-improvement and pride and self-preservation has been introduced in My church, amongst My people, long ago; the woman being the false church of Revelation 17 (and of the vision that Zechariah had) which will go from strength to strength right until the end. And then I will change My church. And she shall be unleavened and glorious without spot or wrinkle or any such thing - Mine in glory.

The three measures of meal, My child, are the three phases of My Kingdom: the patriarchs, Israel, and the church of the New Testament. All of these have been infiltrated by the yeast of the Babylonian harlot: Rachel had her house-gods, Israel had Baal, and the church has prosperity preaching. But again, it is all only for the time allotted thereto, and then shall all be changed and purified by Me for My glory and purposes.

See then, lastly, that My Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom stretching from eternity to eternity.

{Lord, the 'new and old' of Mat. 13:52: what does this imply?}

Now if a scribe brings forth good things from his treasure house, then it implies that those are things of My doing and making, for God alone is good, and all good gifts come down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. And if he should bring forth things both old and new, it implies that the Kingdom of God is an everlasting kingdom, lasting from eternity to eternity. It has been before the foundation of the world, and it shall still be when none of this earth remains. It is older than anything known to man, and yet it is forever new and fresh as a living thing sprouting new branches and flowers every day. I AM the Living God, forever creating and always new and original, yet never changing. And in this is both the joy and the foundation and stability of My children: I AM always at the same time both old and new - both unchanging and forever changing - both a sure foundation and joyous LIFE.

T-16

{Lord, what does the 'Feast of trumpets' signify?}

The Feast of Trumpets signifies My return to the earth to gather My saints together and to receive them unto Myself. And thus it has a triple meaning: The gathering of the first fruits, the gathering of the harvest, and the gathering of My people Israel - the remnant thereof. And as I have spoken of old in My anger against man in his pride and arrogance against the truth of My glory and My election of who shall be Mine and who shall not be Mine, have I also decreed that there shall be a day of reckoning and of judgment. And so then, does the Day of Trumpets not only signify the release of those who are Mine according to My election, but it also signifies the judgment to come of those who are not Mine and who place themselves in array against Me and My elect, denying the Truth. And so then shall this process of judgment and of cleansing be introduced by the trumpets of My judgment, and be consummated by the finality of the Great Throne of Judgment, when final and complete atonement shall be made for the sins of the world.

T-17

{Lord, does an unbeliever have a spirit?}

My child, I am always the same: yesterday, today and forever. And once I have spoken it remains true forever, and it shall be done as I have determined and known beforehand. And as I have spoken in My word, so shall it be, and so has it been from the beginning: If man should eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, he shall die - and he has died in spirit. And it took the very death of My own Son to bring back life in the Spirit. And only then could man again receive from that inward fountain of life and sustenance, of My very Being welling up and flowing forth from the very core of every born-again child of Mine. It was out of death that you were born again, My son, My daughter; not from one life to another. I love you as My very own - being of My Being and flesh of My Flesh - My child, My very own: born from Me and in Me, having received Eternal Life - My own Life - in your midst, in your being, in your spirit; having been dead, but now alive unto Me forevermore.

(Eph. 2:1)

{Lord, please explain the meaning of the seals in Revelation?}

My child, as everything has a time and a place, even an appointed time and an appointed place, so does My word have an appointed place and an appointed time of fulfillment. And nothing will stop My word from coming to pass when I have so decreed.

Concerning the seals: they are part of My plan for the redemption of mankind and the establishment of My Kingdom on earth - for the redemption of all of My creation into the glorious liberty of the sons of God, of whom you are part! And in fact do they reveal (for that is what they do) not only what has occurred in the past concerning the complete plan of redemption, but they also reveal the final climaxes of that plan.

The first seal is the beginning of redemption, and the last seal is the consummation of redemption. It starts with the Prince of Peace setting out to conquer, and it is completed by the Son of God - the Prince of Peace - taking up the reigns of authority over all the kingdoms of this world. As it starts with the Son of God, so shall it also end with Him on the throne of His kingdom - unto all eternity.

Concerning the other seals, My child, it is as follows: In the wake of the Son of God comes the Destroyer, yet being allowed to destroy peace from the face of the earth - but only for a season. For when the end comes, he will be cast into the lake of fire - even the Antichrist, for it is he sitting on the red horse. And even as the message of the Prince of Peace shall go forth across the length and breadth of the earth as never before; even so shall the Destroyer be allowed to take away peace from the face of the earth as never before. And in his wake shall be destructions - until the end.

Concerning the third seal, then: This is famine sweeping the earth. And at the time of the end even more than ever before. And the famine comes in the wake of the Destroyer having taken away peace from the earth. But know then, that even as the Prince of Peace gives peace in the hearts of men; and even as the Destroyer destroys that peace in the hearts of men, rather than in the physical; even so is this famine not as much a famine in the physical, but a famine of true wheat and true barley; of true wine and true oil - of mature, spirit-filled children of God, inheritors of the Kingdom of God; followers of the Prince of Peace despite all obstacles, persevering unto the end, conquerors over the mark and influence of the Destroyer.

Concerning the rider on the black horse - his name is Satan. For it has been given to him to test those on the earth; to accuse the brethren, to oppose the church; to mislead and to deceive. He is the author of this famine, for by his designs are good seed being destroyed, being eaten by the birds of the air, being made unfruitful by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life. It is by his designs that the children of men are deceived into serving religion rather than the Son of God. It is by his designs that the truth of the gospel is diluted into what suits man rather than what has been decreed by the King in fulfilling the designs and purposes of His Kingdom. It is by his designs that My people do not grow into maturity and that few will be ready to meet Me when I come.

Concerning the last horse: It has been decreed for all men to die, yet the Son of God has come that all may have life. But this life is robbed from all but a few. My child, what is happening here is that people are drawn and forced into Death and Hades because they have not accepted the Rider on the White Horse. And that has been happening all along. Yet shall it reach vast proportions in the last time. Through pestilences and famine and wild beasts and the sword - implying the spiritual designs that shall be used and have been used to destroy men.

Concerning the times and the seasons: These shall all reach a climax towards the end of the present time before the Son of God come on the clouds. But they need to be understood spiritually rather than physically. In the physical there shall be signs and happenings linked to these four horses, but their true meaning can only be discerned in the greater context of the establishment of the Kingdom of God on this earth and thereafter. Be then aware of this and do not seek specific signs in this regard as indications of when the end will be. For all of these have happened and will yet happen until the end comes.

Concerning the 'fourth part of the earth': I have given that part into their hands as a physical reality in the end time, but do not look at this in disproportion to the true content of what Death and Hades have been doing to those who could have received eternal life throughout the ages.

The fifth seal concerns all those who have received life, and as far as this world is concerned, were rejected, abused and even put to death. Their number shall be completed during the coming tribulation.

The sixth seal concerns the consummation of all things, when the kingdom of Satan shall be finally destroyed and annihilated. All of these must be understood in terms of the establishing of the Kingdom of God, for finally, on this earth there shall be room for only one, and not both. And the Prince of Peace shall have conquered in full - having won the victory on Calvary, and having subdued all things under His feet at the end; then handing the Kingdom to His Father.

Concerning the seventh seal: These are actual happenings acting as warnings right at the end, and culminating in the Son of God coming on the clouds to receive His own unto Himself. And then shall the end come.

{And Lord, why do you say: "Do not harm the oil and the wine" in the 3<sup>d</sup> seal?}

Then again, as before shall oil and wine be precious and not common. It shall be a commodity that need to be utilized with care, but it shall also be under My divine protection, for Satan shall not be allowed to touch it at his own will, and not to harm it: My true children shall be under My protection. Satan shall have no hold on them. "And the wicked one shall not touch them." (See 1 John 5:18)

{Lord, people are drawn into death and Hades by the sword, and pestilences and famine and wild beasts. Lord, what is the meaning of these things, spiritually?}

My child, concerning these things, you need to know that Satan and his cohorts are masterly in their utilization of these things against mankind. But the Son of God is the Victor, also over all these things, for all who truly seek their help and their salvation from Him and Him alone.

The 'wild beasts' are the spiritual hosts of wickedness, attacking, devouring, destroying men without protection; generally wreaking havoc and destruction in men's lives; crippling them and even keeping them in bondage whilst slowly but surely destroying them, devouring them.

'Pestilence' is wrong teaching poisoning men's minds and hearts, and causing death on a large scale.

'The sword' is man attempting to attain to his own salvation, but being destroyed by the sword themselves.

'Famine' is lack of teaching, lack of knowledge, lack of the true Word of God - eventually leading to death.

And Jesus Himself is the answer, the remedy, the victory over all these things, My child.

{Lord, the silence in heaven at the opening of the 7th seal, what does it mean?}

When all things culminate in the great final climax, then awe and silence is an apt response. When the serious and insistent calling of the saints for righteousness and peace to come to the earth is finally met, then awe and stillness fill all of heaven. When millennia of injustice and wrong is about to be punished and brought to an end, then the apt response is awesome silence. When rejoicing above what can be supplied is required, then silence is the only answer. When the expectation of millennia is finally met, and the seemingly endless futility of crying out for justice is finally removed, then a stunned and awesome silence is the inevitable and only true answer. All of heaven and all of creation await this moment with bated breath. And great shall be the rejoicing when it finally arrives, My child.

{Lord, will the child of Rev. 12 do world evangelization as the 'labourers' gathering the final harvest, or not?}

Yes, My Son! Yes! This is a great mystery I have shown you, and through you those who are ready to accept it. I have great, great joy in this final onslaught, in this final gathering of the saints, in this final and greatest outpouring of My Spirit, in this final and greatest downpour of My grace and display of My power in your midst. And it is for this very thing that I have set you and those I have given you aside; have prepared and groomed and tested and purified you all; have allowed unpleasant things and failure upon failure in your life, for what is to come can only be done in a fashion void of human ability and input, in complete newness of mind and action. I will do it in you! To those who have been willing to be prepared, shall I give the glory and the power of the resurrected life, and as I also witnessed on earth in the glory and power of resurrection life, so shall you. I have made known to you that you are part of this final army, and I have made known to you the greatness and glory of what I have in store for you. This is the fulfillment of all of that. I love you!

{Lord, what is the meaning of Baal worship for today?}

Baal worship, today, is the same as ever - only the images that are worshipped have become camouflaged. It is all about man becoming the center and the purpose of his life - out of man, through man, and for the purpose of man himself. That is man deciding what, when, where, and what not, when not and where not; man himself being the centre point and focus of what happens and of what gets done - man's own power and abilities are glorified and trusted upon, and man is put in control of his circumstances, whilst his Creator God is relegated back into obscure rituals and meaningless prattlings and mysticisms in order to get rid of Him. And then again, man is the purpose of this 'worship': his own will, his own pleasure - even cheap and dirty and licentious pleasures - his own desires and success and comfort and glory.

The 'deities' worshipped in Baal worship are worthless and powerless because they have been established by man, for man, as a cloak to cover up and replace the true God. And today you will find those 'deities' in the form of wrong rituals and the glorification of man; in hero worship - and millions of images of these heroes are distributed throughout the world, pasted on the walls of kids' rooms and businesses alike; whilst death-like rituals and religious practices replaced the worship of the One True God in spirit and in truth.

{"What is the symbolic meaning of Moab, Lord?"}

Moab, My child, is the son of Lot by treachery and deceit. Lot's wife was bound to her earthly possessions and inheritance; and so were her daughters bound to earthly thoughts and desires. And thus is Moab and Ammon the pictures of materialism and earthly thoughts and alliances within My church. That need to be overcome and destroyed, and your mind must be set on the heavenly and the eternal, which is Isaac, the son of Abraham, My true servant and Sarah, My chosen vessel for the son of promise who will receive the eternal inheritance, not by treachery or human design, but by and in response to the Word of God.

{"What is the symbolic meaning of Damascus, Lord?"}

Damascus, My child, is the city of pride, the beautiful city, the Jewel of the East, glorying in her own successes, glorying in her own accomplishments and power - yet denying Me, their true Source and Supply of all good things. And therefore, My child, does Damascus stand for human pride and achievement; for the boasting of the flesh, and for the achievements of man as done in his own power, wisdom, 'clever' designs, and boastful human efforts and ability - yet denying the fact that all human ability, and opportunity, come from Me; that I am the Giver of all good things, and therefore, the honour and the glory ought never be taken by man unto himself.
